Tourism and Informal Encounters in Cuba Valerio Simoni, 2016-01-01 Based on a detailed ethnography this book explores the promises and expectations of tourism in Cuba drawing attention to the challenges that tourists and local people face in establishing meaningful connections with each other. Notions of informal encounter and relational idiom illuminate ambiguous experiences of tourism harassment economic transactions hospitality friendship and festive and sexual relationships. Comparing these various connections the author shows the potential of touristic encounters to redefine their moral foundations power dynamics and implications offering new insights into how contemporary relationships across difference and inequality are imagined and understood.

Perspectives on Ecological Degradation and Technological Progress Yilanci Veli, 2023-07-24 In economics researchers have stated that there is a limit to growth because natural resources are finite. However with technological developments and the discovery of new natural resource reserves the limits on growth and development have begun to disappear. New technologies promoting energy efficiency provide growth opportunity in new directions and the development of technologies have a positive effect on the environment. Perspectives on Ecological Degradation and Technological Progress explores the economic and social impacts of technological progress on environmental degradation from a multidisciplinary perspective. Other factors that may affect environmental degradation are analyzed and indicators that may be important for the environment are determined. Covering topics such as economic growth ecological degradation and environmental violations this premier reference source is an excellent resource for economists ecologists government officials sociologists environmental engineers and innovators students and educators of higher education librarians researchers and academicians.

Social Entrepreneurship in Hospitality Willy Legrand, Miguel Angel Gardetti, Robert Schønrock Nielsen, Colin Johnson, Mehmet Ergul, 2020-11-15 This innovative book is the first to explore social entrepreneurship in the field of hospitality introducing students to the principles of social entrepreneurship motivation finance sustainability issues and challenges and how these can be successfully implemented in a range of hospitality settings. The hospitality industry offers a particularly fruitful framework for social entrepreneurs partly due to the low barriers of entry and opportunities to enhance social and environmental wealth. A variety of international case studies are integrated throughout to showcase the challenges and successes of social entrepreneurship in the hospitality industry in a wide range of settings. Discussion questions further reading suggestions and exercises at the end of each chapter help the student to explore these concepts further. Insights into the industry's role during and potentially beyond the COVID 19 crisis are offered in the concluding chapter. This is a timely addition to the literature written by a team of highly regarded professionals and academics and will be essential reading for all current and future entrepreneurs in the field of Hospitality Management.
