

2024 ECONOMICS 12 MACROECONOMICS ESSAYS (P1)

A. CIRCULAR FLOW

1. Discuss in detail the markets within the FOUR-SECTOR model. (28 marks)

INTRODUCTION

- ✓ Market is the mechanism that brings buyers and sellers together to exchange goods and services. ✓✓
- ✓ Markets coordinate economic activities and determine prices of goods and services. ✓✓

BODY

PRODUCT AND FACTOR MARKETS

Product market/Goods/Output markets ✓

- Product market is where goods and services are exchanged for money. ✓✓
- E.g. Shoprite retailer. ✓
- These are markets for consumer goods and services. ✓✓
- In economics a distinction is made between goods and services:
- Goods are defined as any tangible items such as clothing, food cars that satisfy human wants or need. ✓✓
- Capital and consumer goods are traded in these markets. ✓✓
- Capital goods market are trading buildings and machinery. ✓✓
- Consumer goods markets are trading durable consumer goods, semi-durable goods and non-durable goods. ✓✓
- Services are defined as non-tangible actions e.g. wholesalers and retailer, transport and financial markets. ✓✓

Factor market/Resource/Input markets ✓

- Factor market is where factors of production are traded. ✓✓ e.g. labour is hired and capital is borrowed. ✓✓
- Households sell factors of production in this market. ✓✓
- These services earn wages for labour, interest for capital, rent for natural resources and profits for entrepreneurship. ✓✓
- Labour can be bought and sold in this market. ✓✓
- Factor market includes labour, property and financial markets. ✓✓
 - ✓ Product markets and factor markets are related in the sense that the demand for factor services is a derived demand. ✓✓

The Economics of Resource Allocation in Health Care Andrea Klonschinski,2016-03-31 The question of how to allocate scarce medical resources has become an important public policy issue in recent decades Cost utility analysis is the most commonly used method for determining the allocation of these resources but this book counters the argument that overcoming its inherent imbalances is simply a question of implementing methodological changes The Economics of Resource Allocation in Health Care represents the first comprehensive analysis of equity weighting in health care resource allocation that offers a fundamental critique of its basic framework. It offers a critique of health economics putting the discourse on economic evaluation into its broader socio-political context. Such an approach broadens the debate on fairness in health economics and ties it in with deeper rooted problems in moral philosophy. Ultimately this interdisciplinary study calls for the adoption of a fundamentally different paradigm to address the distribution of scarce medical resources. This book will be of interest to policy makers, health care professionals and post graduate students looking to broaden their understanding of the economics of the health care system.

Behavioral Science & Policy: Volume 2, Issue 1 Craig Fox, Sim B. Sitkin, 2016-11-22. The success of nearly all public and private sector policies hinges on the behavior of individuals, groups and organizations. Today such behaviors are better understood than ever thanks to a growing body of practical behavioral science research. However, policymakers often are unaware of behavioral science findings that may help them craft and execute more effective and efficient policies. The pages of this new journal will become a meeting ground, a place where scientists and non-scientists can encounter clearly described behavioral research that can be put into action. By design, the scope of BSP is broad with topics spanning health care, financial decisionmaking, energy and the environment, education and culture, justice and ethics and work place practices. Contributions will be made by researchers with expertise in psychology, sociology, law, behavioral economics, organization science, decision science and marketing. The journal is a key offering of the Behavioral Science Policy Association in partnership with the Brookings Institution. The mission of BSPA is to foster dialog between social scientists, policymakers and other practitioners in order to promote the application of rigorous empirical behavioral science in ways that serve the public interest. BSPA does not advance a particular agenda or political perspective. The first issue's contents follow:

Methodology of Islamic Economics Necmettin Kizilkaya, 2019-11-05 In its pursuit to equip the reader with a basic knowledge of Islamic economics this book divulges the micro foundations of the discipline and highlights the predominant schools of thought that exist in the field It explains in simple terms what Islamic economics entails and how it can be studied as a science in relation to the Holy Quran the Sunnah and the Islamic intellectual tradition based on these two sources The book familiarizes the reader with knowledge of the basic maxims of the discipline It then establishes the arguments that are presented by the proponents of religion based economics specifically Islam and apprises readers about the aforementioned schools as they exist A number of chapters consider the dimension of the dilemmas the discipline is facing and the chronological progress of the field is reviewed hence providing a comprehensive overview of the topic The book deals with the issues about the origins of Islamic economics the basic methodological questions the use of the opportunities offered by fiqh in the methodological discussions and the main problems arising from the encounter with other cultures and civilizations It offers practical solutions despite the differing schools of thought not unlike the development of conventional Economics where radical differences between Keynesian Classical and Monetarist approaches existed It concludes by incorporating some of the finest works that explain to the reader how Islamic economics may progress as a discipline This guide will provide both students and researchers in Comparative Economic Studies Islamic Economics and Islamic Finance with an essential overview of the field Handbook of Macroeconomics John B. Taylor, Harald Uhlig, 2016-11-12 Handbook of Macroeconomics Volumes 2A and 2B surveys major advances in macroeconomic scholarship since the publication of Volume 1 1999 carefully distinguishing between empirical theoretical methodological and policy issues including fiscal monetary and regulatory policies to deal with crises unemployment and economic growth As this volume shows macroeconomics has undergone a profound change since the publication of the last volume due in no small part to the questions thrust into the spotlight by the worldwide financial crisis of 2008 With contributions from the world's leading macroeconomists its reevaluation of macroeconomic scholarship and assessment of its future constitute an investment worth making Serves a double role as a textbook for macroeconomics courses and as a gateway for students to the latest research Acts as a one of a kind resource as no major collections of macroeconomic essays have been published in the last decade Builds upon Volume 1 by using its section headings to illustrate just how far macroeconomic thought has evolved Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past Mobile Payments, Consumer Policy, and the Law Nwanneka Ezechukwu, 2023-03-17 Mobile technology offers an innovative and cost effective channel for delivering a range of financial services including mobile payments In some jurisdictions mobile payments simply provide a convenient option for facilitating payment transactions In other jurisdictions mobile payments are viewed as potentially transformative because they present an opportunity to expand access to financial services However as with other innovations mobile payments raise consumer protection concerns and require robust regulatory mechanisms to address such concerns Against this backdrop the book adopts a typology of consumer policy tools which can be used to address the identified consumer concerns This typology guides the enquiry into the existing consumer protection frameworks applying to mobile payments in selected jurisdictions Canada Kenya and the United Kingdom The main objective of this endeavour is to identify best practices that national authorities seeking to leverage mobile payments and similar innovations can emulate This book will be of interest to policymakers regulators industry stakeholders students and scholars interested in the regulation of innovative financial services particularly from a consumer protection perspective
