Scope Magazine February 2015:

Screening China's Soft Power Paola Voci, Luo Hui, 2017-10-02 Promoting China's cultural soft power by disseminating modern Chinese values is one of the policies of President Xi Jinping. Although it is usually understood as a top-down initiative implemented willingly or unwillingly by writers, filmmakers, artists, and so on, and often manifesting itself in clumsy and awkward ways, for example, the concept of the Chinese dream intended to rival and perhaps appeal more strongly than the American dream, modern Chinese values are in fact put forward in many ways by many different cultural actors. Through analyses of film festivals, CCTV Confucius Institutes, auteurs, blockbusters, reality TV, and online digital cultures, this book exposes the limitations of China's officially promoted soft power in both conception and practice and proposes a pluralistic approach to understanding Chinese soft power in local, regional, and transnational contexts. As such, the book demonstrates the limitations of existing theories of soft power and argues that the US-derived concept of soft power can benefit from being examined from a China perspective.

The Other in Contemporary Migrant Cinema Guido Rings, 2016-01-08 As a rapidly aging continent, Europe increasingly depends on the successful integration of migrants. Unfortunately, contemporary political and media discourses observe and frequently also support the development of nationalist, eurosceptic, and xenophobic reactions to immigration and growing multiethnicity. Confronting this trend, European cinema has developed and disseminated new transcultural and postcolonial alternatives that might help to improve integration and community cohesion in Europe, and this book investigates these alternatives in order to identify examples of good practices that can enhance European stability. While the cinematic spectrum is as wide and open as most notions of Europeanness, the films examined share a fundamental interest in the Other. In this qualitative film analysis approach, particular consideration is given to British, French, German, and Spanish productions, and a comparison of multiethnic conviviality in Chicano cinema.

Lone Star Steeples Pixie Christensen, 2016-06-14 In Lone Star Steeples: Historic Places of Worship in Texas, Carl J. Christensen Jr. and Pixie Christensen present sixty-five captivating and historically significant structures in exquisite watercolor illustrations accompanied by brief summaries and convenient handcrafted maps. Ranging from stately edifices of brick and stone located in urban centers to more humble wood-frame chapels in rural surroundings, the houses of faith shown in these pages have one important trait in common: They have all served as centers of cultural identity, spiritual comfort, and public service to the communities in which they arose. In their introduction, the Christensens write: "The journey behind Lone Star Steeples crisscrossed the state along back roads, farm roads, and state highways. In these journeys and in the stories that were told, certain patterns began to emerge: the pride of the people in building their churches; debt-free perseverance of the people who endured their beloved church being destroyed by natural disaster once, twice, or even three times; the people's recognition of the church as their cultural foundation, their moral foundation, their social center." As the Christensens demonstrate, Texas is home to a remarkable diversity of people, and their places of worship reflect and celebrate that diversity.

This Is Where You Belong Melody Warnick, 2016-06-21 In the spirit of Gretchen Rubin's megaseller The Happiness Project and Eric Weiner's The Geography of Bliss a journalist embarks on a project to discover what it takes to love where you live The average restless American will move 11.7 times in a lifetime For Melody Warnick it was move 6 from Austin Texas to Blacksburg Virginia that threatened to unhinge her In the lonely aftermath of unpacking she wondered Aren't we supposed to put down roots at some point How does the place we live become the place we want to stay This time she had an epiphany Rather than hold her breath and hope this new town would be her family's perfect fit she would figure out how to fall in love with it no matter what How we come to feel at home in our towns and cities is what Warnick sets out to discover in This Is Where You Belong She dives into the body of research around place attachment the deep sense of connection that binds some of us to our cities and increases our physical and emotional well being then travels to towns across America to see it in action Inspired by a growing movement of placemaking she examines what its practitioners are doing to create likeable locales She also speaks with frequent movers and loyal stayers around the country to learn what draws highly mobile Americans to a new city and what makes us stay The best ideas she imports to her adopted hometown of Blacksburg for a series of Love Where You Live experiments designed to make her feel more locally connected Dining with her neighbors Shopping Small Business Saturday Marching in the town Christmas parade Can these efforts make a halfhearted resident happier Will Blacksburg be the place she finally stays What Warnick learns will inspire you to embrace your own community and perhaps discover that the place where you live right now is home

Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium Lee Carruthers, Charles Tepperman, 2023-01-15 At the turn of the millennium Canadian cinema appeared to have reached an apex of aesthetic and commercial transformation Domestic filmmaking has since declined in visibility the sense of celebrity once associated with independent directors has diminished projects garner less critical attention and concepts that made late twentieth century Canadian film legible have been reconsidered or displaced Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium examines this dramatic transformation and revitalizes our engagement with Canadian cinema in the contemporary moment presenting focused case studies of films and filmmakers and contextual studies of Canadian film policy labour and film festivals Contributors trace key developments since 2000 including the renouveau or Quebec New Wave Indigenous filmmaking i docs and diasporic experimental filmmaking Reflecting the way film in Canada mediates multiple cultures forging new affinities among anglophone francophone and Indigenous language examples this book engages familiar figures such as Denis Villeneuve Xavier Dolan Sarah Polley and Guy Maddin in the same breath as small budget independent films documentaries and experimental works that have emerged in the Canadian scene Fuelled by close attention to the films themselves and a desire to develop new scholarly approaches Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium models a renewed commitment to keeping the conversation about Canadian cinema vibrant and alive

Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture John Powers, 2023 The Bolex camera 16mm reversal film stocks commercial film laboratories and low budget optical printers were the small gauge media technologies that provided the infrastructure for experimental filmmaking at the height of its cultural impact Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture examines how the avant garde embraced these material resources and invested them with meanings and values adjacent to those of semiprofessional film culture By reasserting the physicality of the body in making time lapse and kinesthetic sequences with the Bolex filmmakers conversed with other art forms and integrated broader spheres of humanistic and scientific inquiry into their artistic process Drawing from the photographic qualities of stocks such as Tri X and Kodachrome they discovered pliant metaphors that allowed them to connect their artistic practice to metaphysics spiritualism and Hollywood excess By framing film labs as mystical or adversarial they cultivated an oppositionality that valorized control over the artistic process And by using the optical printer as a tool for excavating latent meaning out of found footage they posited the reworking of images as fundamental to the exploration of personal and cultural identity Providing a wealth of new detail about the making of canonized avant garde classics by such luminaries as Carolee Schneemann Jack Smith and Stan Brakhage as well as rediscovering works from overlooked artists such as Chick Strand Amy Halpern and Gunvor Nelson Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture uses technology as a lens for examining the process of making where ideas come from how they are put into practice and how arguments about those ideas foster cultural and artistic commitments and communities

Andy Varipapa Glenn Gerstner,2024-05-01 Born in Italy in 1891 Andy Varipapa immigrated to the United States in 1903 uneducated and unable to speak English Equipped with little more than athletic ability the will to succeed and a healthy dose of self confidence he became bowling s first superstar In the 1940s and 1950s Varipapa was the world s most famous bowler For more than 50 years he dazzled fans with an array of never before seen trick shots in person on movie screens and on television Varipapa was not only a performer but one of the greatest bowlers ever He won the prestigious BPAA All Star tournament in 1946 silencing critics who claimed he was just an entertainer And he did so at age 55 long past most bowlers retirement age To prove it was no fluke he repeated in 1947 Bowling fans recognized the outspoken and brash Great Varipapa who once said I m the most skillful talkative and controversial bowler who ever lived Few knew Andy the kind and loyal family man and friend Sourced from interviews with family and friends and more than 1 000 secondary sources this first ever biography of Varipapa tells the personal story of bowling s greatest showman and one of its most influential figures

Trouble Every Day Kate Robertson,2021-06-15 Transgressive both in its narrative and in its filmmaking Trouble Every Day 2001 envisions the monster inside unspeakable urges and an overwhelming need for complete incorporation A plant discovered in the South American jungle produces in its test subjects a terrible unnatural and uncontrollable hunger Vicious all consuming desire begets excessive violence and a turn to cannibalism which situates Trouble Every Day into a tradition of challenging cinema a film maudit that pushes the boundaries of what can be shown on screen But while it is certainly an unflinching film it is deserving of reassessment as part of Clare Denis filmography as well as a broader cinematic lineage Focusing on close textual analysis this book delves into the surfeit of visual literary and non fiction references that shape Trouble Every Day while thwarting attempts to firmly situate it It considers its place in a lineage of films that push the boundary of taste and representation aligned as much with Un Chien Andalou 1929 as the New French Extremity It also considers the film s relationship to such sub genres as classic monster movies video nasties mad science gothic vampire body horror and Italo exploitation cannibal films and directors such as Abel Ferrara Brian de Palma Jean Renoir and Jacques Tourneau Drawing on a range of disciplines including art philosophy and phenomenology this study explores how Trouble Every Day elicits a visceral response to a cinematic experience that beguiles and violates

No Boston Olympics Chris Dempsey,Andrew Zimbalist,2017-05-02 In 2013 and 2014 some of Massachusetts wealthiest and most powerful individuals hatched an audacious plan to bring the 2024 Summer Olympics to Boston Like their counterparts in cities around the world Boston s Olympic boosters promised political leaders taxpayers and the media that the Games would deliver incalculable benefits and require little financial support from the public Yet these advocates refused to share the details of their bid and only grudgingly admitted when pressed that their plan called for billions of dollars in construction of unneeded venues To win the bid the public would have to guarantee taxpayer funds to cover cost overruns which have plagued all modern Olympic Games The United States Olympic Committee USOC chose Boston 2024 s bid over that of other American cities in January 2015 and for a time it seemed inevitable that the International Olympic Committee IOC would award the Games to Boston 2024 No Boston Olympics is the story of how an ad hoc underfunded group of diverse and engaged citizens joined together to challenge and ultimately derail Boston s boosters the USOC and the IOC Chris Dempsey was cochair of No Boston Olympics the group that first voiced skepticism demanded accountability and catalyzed dissent Andrew Zimbalist is a world expert on the economics of sports and the leading researcher on the hidden costs of hosting mega events such as the Olympics and the World Cup Together they tell Boston s story while providing a blueprint for citizens who seek to challenge costly wasteful disruptive and risky Olympic bids in their own cities The Rise of the Commercial Space Industry Brian C. Odom,2024-09-13 This collection explores the evolution of the commercial space industry from the beginning of the space age through the early twenty first century Today the space industry is taking on an increased leadership and innovation role in both space access and exploration The growth of commercial space over the past decades offers a potential new paradigm for space exploration one in which industry transitions from supplier to partner However many questions remain This book seeks to bring to light these questions which span from the most seemingly consequential how will humanity explore the Moon and Mars to the most basic what is commercial space To further develop the historical context of commercial space and thereby better inform decision making at NASA in the future this volume examines a broad range of questions related to the history of commercial space operations including but not limited to how has the concept of commercial space evolved in different fields and disciplines What have been the major events and milestones in the emergence and evolution of commercial space activities in the USA and internationally How has the US Government assisted or impeded the emergence and evolution of commercial space activities Providing contributions from a range of different disciplines and backgrounds the authors of this volume offer valuable insights for scholars researching the history of space and space policy as well as decision makers working at NASA or within the wider space industry Identity Revisited and Reimagined Sangeeta Bagga-Gupta,Aase Lyngvær Hansen,Julie Feilberg,2017-07-06 In contrast to other studies on identity this book takes its point of departure in the complexities that characterize and shape both individuals and societies past and present Its chapters challenge demarcated fields of study and conceptions of identity as gender identity as functional disability identity as race and identity as or based upon language groupings The contributions take a social practices perspective in their exploration of the performance living and doing of identity positions across time and space Many of the contributions take an intersectional stance and the majority report upon empirically driven studies that examine the ways in which micro level analyses of naturally occurring human communication contribute to our understanding of identification processes Specifically they study the ways in which more recent dialogical and social theoretical analytical frameworks allow for attending to the complexity and dynamics of identity processes the ways in which institutional settings media settings community of practices and affinity spaces provide affordances and obstacles for different types of identity positions and the ways in which shifts in identity positions can be traced across time and space

The Cinema of Discomfort Geoff King, 2021-10-07 How do we understand types of cinema that offer experiences of discomfort awkwardness or disquieting uncertainty This book examines a number of examples of such work at the heart of contemporary art and indie film While the commercial mainstream tends to offer comforting viewing experiences or moments of discomfort that exist largely to be overcome The Cinema of Discomfort analyses films in which discomfort is offered in a sustained manner Cinema of this kind confronts us with material such as distinctly uncomfortable sexual encounters It invites us into uncertain relationships with awkward and sometimes unlikable characters It presents us with challenging behaviour or what are presented as uncomfortable realities It often refuses information on which to base judgments More discomfortingly cinema of this kind tends to provoke uncertainty at the level of what emotional responses we are encouraged to have towards difficult sometimes controversial characters or events The Cinema of Discomfort examines a number of case studies including Palindromes by Todd Solondz US and Dogtooth from Yorgos Lanthimos Greece along with other examples from Austria Sweden the UK the US and Germany Offering close textual analysis of the manner in which discomfort is generated it also asks how we should understand the appeal of such work to certain viewers and how the existence of films of this kind can be explained as products of both their socio cultural context and the more particular institutional realms of art and indie film

Queering Mennonite Literature Daniel Shank Cruz, 2019-01-27 Though the terms queer and Mennonite rarely come into theoretical or cultural contact over the last several decades writers and scholars in the United States and Canada have built a body of queer Mennonite literature that shifts these identities into conversation In this volume Daniel Shank Cruz brings this growing genre into a critical focus bridging the gaps between queer theory literary criticism and Mennonite literature Cruz focuses his analysis on recent Mennonite authored literary texts that espouse queer theoretical principles including Christina Penner's Widows of Hamilton House Wes Funk's Wes Side Story and Sofia Samatar's Tender These works argue for the existence of a queer Mennonite identity on the basis of shared values a commitment to social justice a rejection of binaries the importance of creative approaches to conflict resolution and the practice of mutual aid especially in resisting oppression Through his analysis Cruz encourages those engaging with both Mennonite and queer literary criticism to explore the opportunity for conversation and overlap between the two fields By arguing for engagement between these two identities and highlighting the aspects of Mennonitism that are inherently queer Cruz gives much needed attention to an emerging subfield of Mennonite literature This volume makes a new and important intervention into the fields of queer theory literary studies Mennonite studies and religious studies

South Asia and China Adluri Subramanyam Raju, 2021-10-05 This book brings together new perspectives on China's engagement with South Asian countries. It examines emerging trends in the ties between China and South Asia in the geo-political, geo-strategic and geo-economics context and looks at opportunities for collaboration and connectivity between them. Drawing on extensive case studies, this volume discusses issues such as China's overarching Belt Road Initiative (BRI), regional responses and alternatives to BRI, the new politico-economic drivers in the region, India's China puzzle, the Wuhan informal summit, Nepal and its security dilemma in the region and China's role in peace and stability in Afghanistan. It presents analysis, debates and the way forward for a comprehensive South Asian regional understanding in the wake of the advancing Chinese presence in South Asia. An important contribution in the study of the developing pan-China South Asia vision, this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of international relations, Chinese studies, Asian studies, defence and strategic studies, regional cooperation, foreign policy, geopolitics, comparative politics and political studies. Taiwan Army

Violence and the Destruction of Human Communities Fiona Greenland, Fatma Müge Göçek, 2020-06-02 This volume brings together leading sociologists and anthropologists to break new ground in the study of cultural violence. First sketched in Raphael Lemkin's seminal writings on genocide and later systematically defined by peace studies scholar Johan Galtung, the concept of cultural violence seeks to explain why and how language, symbols, rituals, practices and objects are so frequently in the crosshairs of socio-political change. Recent conflicts in the Middle East, Africa and Central Asia, along with renewed public interest in the repertoire of violence applied to the control and erasure of indigenous populations, highlights the gaps in our understanding of why cultural violence occurs, what it consists of and how it relates to other forms of collective violence. Issues in African American Music Portia Maultsby, Mellonee Burnim, 2016-10-26

Issues in African American Music: Power, Gender, Race, Representation is a collection of twenty-one essays by leading scholars surveying vital themes in the history of African American music. Bringing together the viewpoints of ethnomusicologists, historians and performers, these essays cover topics including the music industry, women and gender, and music as resistance, and explore the stories of music creators and their communities. Revised and expanded to reflect the latest scholarship, with six all-new essays, this book both complements the previously published volume African American Music: An Introduction and stands on its own. Each chapter features a discography of recommended listening for further study. From the antebellum period to the present and from classical music to hip hop, this wide-ranging volume provides a nuanced introduction for students and anyone seeking to understand the history social context and cultural impact of African American music
