Re-Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities Bosch, Chantelle, Laubscher, Dorothy Joy, Kyei-Blankson, Lydia, 2021-05-14 Challenges in the educational arena are not new phenomena However with the recent outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic researchers and educators have been made even more aware of the need for a paradigm shift in education Blended learning as opposed to fully online learning or traditional face to face teaching has been well researched and has been found to have the potential to provide better educational solutions in challenging contexts These contexts range from pandemic situations where social distancing is the order of the day to financial and time constraints regarding full time study as well as limited physical capacity at institutions Blended learning solutions are often designed for resourceful institutions and cannot be easily implemented in developing countries and in communities where resources are limited Typical issues like connectivity accessibility lack of suitable devices and affordability need to be taken into consideration and in cognizance of blended learning interventions These challenges are often neglected in blended learning research but are critical discussions to be had Re Envisioning and Restructuring Blended Learning for Underprivileged Communities shares how institutions in the developing world and less privileged communities have re imagined and restructured blended education to enhance teaching and learning for underprivileged communities This book aims to address blended learning solutions across institutional program course and activity levels The chapters will cover a variety of learning environments from rural settings to less developed countries and more and explore the programs and courses designed to improve student success and accessibility in diverse student populations This book is ideally intended for teachers administrators teacher educators practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students who are interested in blended learning opportunities in less privileged settings and to underserved and marginalized populations

Handbook of Quality of Life and Social Change Cornelia C. Walther, 2024-10-04 This handbook provides an extensive overview of the links between quality of life and social change as pursued in not only humanitarian and development work but also in the private sector and academia. It combines theoretical and practice focused chapters and addresses socio economic environmental and political governance aspects as well as communication and human behavioural factors that favour or hamper social change dynamics. The handbook showcases vast diversity both in the authorship which includes practitioners from a wide range of sectors and academics from various disciplines as well in geographical contexts and regions. The chapters cover a wide range of methods and tools which facilitate an inclusive understanding of the relationship between quality of life and social change. They show connections between micro individual changes and the dynamics that derive from them at the meso community macro country and meta levels. The handbook provides a holistic perspective to social change processes that includes both material and non material aspects relating to quality of life. This comprehensive and one of a kind volume is of interest to a wide readership from students and researchers of social development quality of life and wellbeing research to development workers policy makers and other government officials. The handbook is bundled with an interactive online course ISCONTOUR 2019 Tourism Research Perspectives Christian Maurer, Hubert Siller, 2019-03-28. The Protection of Traditional Cultural Expressions in Africa Enyinna Nwauche, 2017-05-26. This book evaluates the protection of traditional cultural expressions in Africa using South Africa Kenya Nigeria and Ghana as case study examples in the light of regional and international approaches in this respect. Such protection is considered in the context of a combination of positive protection models such as the protection offered by intellectual property rights and negative protection such as tangible heritage protection and authorisations by national competent authorities. These models are in turn assessed taking into consideration human and peoples rights frameworks which recognise and affirm group entitlement to among others traditional cultural expressions. These frameworks ensure that such traditional cultural expressions are available for further innovation and creativity.

Reducing Dietary Sodium and Improving Human Health Jacqui Webster, 2018-05-18 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Reducing Dietary Sodium and Improving Human Health that was published in Nutrients Future Tourism

Trends Volume 1 Canan Tanrisever, Hüseyin Pamukçu, Anukrati Sharma, 2024-01-22 The world is entering the Third Millennium in which great changes are expected in all areas of human interest life and activity These changes have been brought on by past and present man made events which have had both positive and negative consequences The coming millennium will be marked by significant social political demographic and technological changes and will definitely differ from the last century The future will bring more leisure time a higher standard of living and a better quality of life for us all Future Tourism Trends examines recent and the most probable changes and answers questions such as Who is the new tourist if there is one and what is she looking for Is the new post technological era transforming the very essence of travelling The authors present a wide range of visionary insights as well as operational takeaways Water Resource Management and the Law Erkki J. Hollo, 2017-11-24 Scarcity of water floods and erosion caused by climate change have made the management of water resources a challenge to national and international actors worldwide States have also initiated water projects to improve social welfare often with significant impacts on the environment This book combines close analysis of the legal structures of water rights with consideration of the modes of water management projects to illustrate current water related problems in terms of practical solutions in a global context A Treatise on Christian Banking Morten

Bosterud, 2022-08-01 From a moral perspective all banking practice and theory can be seen as value driven Therefore there will be no such thing as value neutral banking activities and the application of Christian ethical and pastoral principles adds insights to the field of banking for all its involved stakeholders This book contributes to the specific scientific discourse of practical theology as this typically appears within the subfields of ethics and pastoral studies Christian ethics and pastoral principles as applied in banking make up a largely neglected area in the wider academic discourse found within practical theology and the research presented in this book contributes new knowledge to the field with particular emphasis on banking practice It is expected that the theories presented herein will be of interest for other scholars not only within the realm of practical theology but also in a cross domain perspective where scholars in a broad field of disciplines may find the research and academic positions of interest Such academic fields would include economics finance business administration sociology history anthropology and perhaps more This expectation may not least be derived from the increasing focus on Corporate Social Responsibility CSR as this has emerged over the last decades within the wider business realm in general whence the world of banking has followed suit Alongside this development an emergence of Islamic banking has been seen which has showed substantial growth and success Turmoil, Trauma and Tenacity in Early Jewish Literature Nicholas P. L. Allen, Jacob J. T. Doedens, 2022-08-01 This volume is written in the context of trauma hermeneutics of ancient Jewish communities and their tenacity in the face of adversity i e as recorded in the MT LXX Pseudepigrapha the Deuterocanonical books and even Cognate literature In this regard its thirteen chapters are concerned with the most recent outputs of trauma studies They are written by a selection of leading scholars associated to some degree with the Hungaro South African Study Group Here trauma is employed as a useful hermeneutical lens not only for interpreting biblical texts and the contexts in which they were originally produced and functioned but also for providing a useful frame of reference As a consequence these various research outputs each in their own way confirm that an historical and theological appreciation of these early accounts and interpretations of collective trauma and its implications perceived or otherwise is critical for understanding the essential substance of Jewish cultural identity As such these essays are ideal for scholars in the fields of Biblical Studies particularly those interested in the Pseudepigrapha the Deuterocanonical books and Cognate literature New Public Management in Africa Benon C. Basheka, Lukamba-Muhiya. Tshombe, 2017-08-25 The administrative sciences have been dominated by a turn to managerial perspectives in the late 20th and early 21st centuries and in the spirit of this turn New Public Management or NPM promises to produce efficient responsible and client oriented public services The reforms carried out in the pursuit of New Public Management are often accompanied by great optimism and rapid enthusiastic steps toward implementation Even in highly developed industrial countries however these fundamental reforms often overlook the political and cultural contexts of the implementing country New Public Management in Africa Emerging Issues and Lessons provides much needed theoretical foundations for NPM reforms in the African context and reflects on the success of existing reforms in the development of several African states The individual contributions in this timely volume provide important analyses of academic discourse practical policy achievements and desiderata The book as a whole however provides a valuable impetus for public administration research in and on African states sharing findings on the results of reforms to date and adjustments required for these reforms to succeed For public administration researchers outside of Africa this book offers a review of New Public Management case studies that are unavailable or difficult to find elsewhere contributing much to the exchange between African and Western administration science research and demonstrating that African administrative research is well prepared to help resolve global challenges Bioactive Compounds Mozaniel Santana de Oliveira, Leo M.L. Lieu, Martinus C. de Boer, 2018-07-19 The contribution of the Johannine literature to the development of Christian theology and particularly to Christology is uncontested although careful distinction between the implications of its language especially that of sonship in a first century Jewish context and in the subsequent theological controversies of the early Church has been particularly important if not always easily sustained Recent study has shaken off the weight of subsequent Christian appropriation of Johannine language which has sometimes made readers immune to the ambiguities and challenging tensions in its thought The Oxford Handbook of Johannine Studies begins with chapters concentrating on discussions of the background and context of the Johannine literature leading to the different ways of reading the text and thence to the primary theological themes within them before concluding with some discussion of the reception of the Johannine literature in the early church Inevitably given their different genres and levels of complexity some chapters pay most if not all attention to the Gospel whereas others are more able to give a more substantial place to the letters All the contributors have themselves made significant contributions to their topic They have sought to give a balanced introduction to the relevant scholarship and debate but they have also been able to present the issues from their own perspective The Handbook will help those less familiar with the Johannine literature to get a sense of the major areas of debate and why the field continues to be one of vibrant and exciting study and that those who are already part of the conversation will find new insights to enliven their own on going engagement with these writings Structuring Lexical Data and Digitising Dictionaries, 2024-10-28 In order to guarantee open access and full searchability research in historical lexicography and lexicology must follow the same directions as the evolution of the Internet which has moved from hypertext based resources to more significant services and products stored and disseminated through databases and more recently through knowledge bases Against this background this book addresses specific questions like What is involved in the digitisation of linguistic data What annotation systems can give rise to datasets compatible with knowledge bases What standards are needed to reach full searchability What sources and methods can be used to gather the lemmas of a historical dictionary What determines the obsolescence of lexicographical resources Canada 2024-2025 P.
