Theologies of Childhood and the Children of Africa Jan Grobbelaar,Gert Breed,Alfred Brunsdon,Marcia J. Bunge,Sam Ndoga,Hannes (J.J.) Knoetze,Nico Vorster,2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theologies from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It wants to convey the importance of considering Africa s children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa s children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research which the authors have done in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Theologies of Childhood is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa s children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provide insights that is also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere before

Political Science in South Africa Peter Vale,Pieter Fourie,2016-01-13 In 2013 and in 2014 respectively the South African Association of Political Studies SAAPS and Politikon the South African Journal of Political Studies celebrate their 40th anniversary Also in April 2014 South Africa celebrates twenty years since the advent of the post Apartheid democracy and the birth of the rainbow nation This book provides a timely account of the birth and evolution of South African politics over the past four decades but also of the study of Political Science and International Relations in this country Fourteen political scientists contribute chapters to this volume situating the study of politics within its global context and recounting the development of politics as a field of study at South African universities The fourteen contributions evaluate the state of the discipline s and

suggest conclusions that are surprising and in many instances unsettling not only with regards to what and how politics is taught but also how its study has variously gained and lost pertinence for South Africans understanding of their own polity as well as its place in the world The implications are uncomfortable and pose interesting challenges for South African scholarship pedagogy and national self reflection This book was published as a special issue of Politikon Through the Gender Lens Bola Akanji, Funmi Soetan, 2018-12-12 Sustainable development is now intricately linked not just to economic growth but more importantly to the quality of life of people in terms of their social status political participation cultural freedom environmental justice and inclusive development For previously colonized nations like Nigeria these linkages are believed to have been influenced by the legacies of colonial rule positively or otherwise Through the Gender Lens A Century of Social and Political Development in Nigeria looks at how colonialism has enabled or hindered the roles of the state in promoting inclusive development in general and gender equality in particular in the process of nation building In this edited volume scholars analyze a host of policies strategies and programs as well as empirical evidence to expose how types of governance from direct colonial rule in the country from 1914 through her independence in 1960 a Republic in 1963 and to different post independence governance periods have influenced gender relations and the impacts of these on Nigerian women Diverse sectoral perspectives from education health culture environment and especially politics are presented to explain the level of attainment or otherwise of gender equality and the implications for Nigeria's road to sustainable development The emphasis on the role of the state in development particularly indicts the social and political domains of governance Hence the main focus of inquiry in the volume In its twelve chapters the authors analyze available data and other information to draw relevant conclusions identify lessons of experience including from some cross country comparisons and make concrete recommendations for more gender inclusive systems of governance in the next century of Nigeria's nationhood

Affirmative Action in Malaysia and South Africa Hwok-Aun Lee, 2020-10-22 Malaysia and South Africa implement the most extensive affirmative action programmes worldwide This book explores why and how to effect preferential treatment which has been utilized in the pursuit of inter ethnic parity specifically in higher education high level occupations enterprise development and wealth ownership Through methodical and critical analyses of data on education workforce and population the book evaluates the primary objectives of increasing majority representation in education employment enterprise and ownership The book also critically considers questions of the attainments and limitations of ethnic preferential treatment in reducing disparity the challenges of developing capability and reducing dependency and the scope for policy reforms
