Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel, 2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection However since the Second World War Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today s Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God It then goes onto suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully By bringing Pentecostalism s function in South African society to the fore this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity As such it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as those working in African Studies Towards a Transformative Pedagogy for Early Childhood Care and Education Naseema Shaik,Trevor Moodley,2024-07-12 This book addresses the priorities and possibilities towards developing transformative pedagogies in post apartheid South Africa To this end the book has assembled a group of researchers who interrogated and engaged with a variety of dimensions that warrant pedagogical change in early childhood in South Africa The book focuses on young children practitioners and leaders with intersecting discussions about envisaged systemic changes to promote transformative pedagogies The collection highlights the importance of beliefs ways of knowing and ways of being as framings that impact on pedagogical approaches The book discusses the challenges that interplay between priorities and possibilities that practitioners face in a diverse and multi cultural society like South Africa The work uses a variety of examples to show priorities One example is about how practitioners have limited knowledge about how music as a culturally responsive tool can be used to transform pedagogy in Early Childhood Care and Education The book opens up dimensions as priorities that lead to thinking about possibilities that recast adults and young children as transformative agents in a dimension for transformative pedagogies
