Nostromo, a Tale of the Seaboard Joseph Conrad, 2021-08-09 Nostromo a Tale of the Seaboard Joseph Conrad Joseph Conrad who knew the human nature inside out telling the story of Nostromo and portraying his personages is ironic and even slightly derisive Every man somewhere deep inside has his own share of rascality And every human doing has two sides Action is consolatory It is the enemy of thought and the friend of flattering illusions Only in the conduct of our action can we find the sense of mastery over the Fates The events take place in the South American country of Costaguana which is being torn with greed political ambitions poverty and revolutions They had stopped near the cage The parrot catching the sound of a word belonging to his vocabulary was moved to interfere Parrots are very human Viva Costaguana he shrieked with intense self assertion and instantly ruffling up his feathers assumed an air of puffed up somnolence behind the glittering wires There always are pushers and those who are pushed In all these households she could hear stories of political outrage friends relatives ruined imprisoned killed in the battles of senseless civil wars barbarously executed in ferocious proscriptions as though the government of the country had been a struggle of lust between bands of absurd devils let loose upon the land with sabres and uniforms and grandiloquent phrases And on all the lips she found a weary desire for peace the dread of officialdom with its nightmarish parody of administration without law without security and without justice One day the pushed ones grow tired of being cat s paws and rebel Some outwardly some inwardly But anyway in the end they turn out to be the ones who pay for their rebellion
