"The" Illustrated London News, 1872 The Last Moon DeAnn Lubell, 2010-03-04 On May 8 1902 Mt Pele on the West Indies island of Martinique near the seaport town of St Pierre erupted in a cloud of gas and fire in one of the most awesome and destructive pyrotechnic displays ever offered by nature Four minutes later thirty thousand citizens lay dead or dying and the town engulfed in flames Mother Nature was not entirely to blame for this disaster In truth the real culprits were the rather more deplorable traits found in Human Nature If not for the dishonesty and corruption of officials who placed politics greed and racial intolerance above the welfare of the people this devastating catastrophe did not have to happen The Last Moon remains true to historical facts and personal testimonies The main characters presented in this novel are either composites of real individuals who lived in Martinique prior to the eruption or actual people who influenced the turn of events Also historically genuine are the Creole language clothing mix of races diversified lifestyles corrupt politics racial discrimination whorehouses blackmagic clergy plantations waterfront plagues floods earthquakes tidal waves lava and mud flows volcanic eruptions foreign ships deadly snakes mutant insects lush topography and the before and after sequence of the 1902 tragedy Dramatically captured in this exotic saga are acts of friendship forbidden love lust pride gluttony cruelty corruption mass murder bravery sacrifice survival faith and hope Book Review Very highly recommended for community library historical fiction collections A riveting read from first page to last The Last Moon is a novel set against the 1902 eruption of Mount Pelee on the West Indies island of Martinique that resulted in the death of some thirty thousand people and the seaport town of St Pierre consumed by fire An impressive historical novel author DeAnn Lubell has paid careful attention to detail and accuracy with respect to historical facts including the Creole language spoken there the culture lifestyles geography and the geological phenomena that occur with respect to the eruption of a volcano Against this superbly presented background is an engaging story of lust greed corruption and murder as well as friendship love sacrifice faith hope and survival Deftly written from beginning to end and available in both a hardcover and a softcover edition The Last Moon is very highly recommended for community library historical fiction collections Midwest Book Review Oregon WI USA Dear DeAnnI just finished reading THE LAST MOON and I m so impressed with your wonderful book The research you must have done is overwhelming with attention to such detail I loved Yvette such a strong and interesting character You took me back in time and to a place I ve never been but allowed me to experience it as though I was actually there I m still dusting the volcanic ash off myself Congratulations to you for a beautifully written story THE LAST MOON was a masterpiece Dee Wambaugh THE LAST MOON ReaderTestimonies 1 A riveting read The Last Moon is a novel set against the 1902 eruption of Mount Pele on the West Indies island of Martinique that resulted in the death of some thirty thousand people and the seaport town of St Pierre consumed by fire an impressive historical novel author DeAnn Lubell has paid careful attention to detail and accuracy with respect to historical facts including the Creole language spoken there the culture lifestyles geography and the geological phenomena that occur with respect to the eruption of a volcano Deftly written from beginning to end The Last Moon is very highly recommended for community library historical fiction collection Midwest Book Review 2 Nazi Propaganda Through Art and Architecture Norman Ridley,2024-07-30 When the Nazis came to power in January 1933 they began a program of transforming Germany from a democracy into a totalitarian state but it was not a matter of simply enforcing compliance The people had to be coaxed into believing in the new regime Hearts and minds had to be won over and one of the ways the Nazis did that was to create an ideal of German nationhood in which everyone could feel proud This was especially the case with art which came to be used as a powerful tool of propaganda both to disseminate the myth amongst the population and indicate to the Nazi administrators the sort of cultural environment they should create. It was not an easy thing to do. While the nation was being re-created as a dynamic modern and powerful industrial giant, all the signals coming from Hitler indicated that his own idyllic view of the German nation was of a traditional rural people deep rooted in a romantic mystical aesthetic. Hitler's own experience as an artist in Vienna before the First World War had shown that while technically proficient, his work was detached and impersonal. Despite being rejected by the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts, he continued to see himself as artistically gifted, especially in the field of architecture. This book looks at how the artistic side of Hitler's personality dominated Nazi aesthetics and the ways in which the Third Reich manipulated public opinion and advanced its political agenda using the power of art. Despite his early setbacks, Hitler always thought of himself first and foremost as an artist. He would frequently break off discussions with diplomats and soldiers to veer off on a lecture about his ideas on art and architecture which had been formed during his time in Vienna.

Nazi Propaganda Through Art and Architecture explores how Hitler's artistic and architectural vision for Germany led to the monumental structures which we now associate with the Third Reich alongside the rural idyl he sought to espouse and how they came to symbolise the re-emergent power of a German nation which would dominate Europe. National Historical Magazine, 1939 Mr.

Adventures of Mr. Sydenham Greenfinch, Gentleman, and of His Friends in London Esq. Tom HAWKINS (pseud. [i.e. Theodore Alois William Buckley.]), 1854 Lawrence Durrell's Notes on Travel Volume Two Lawrence Durrell, 2018-07-03

Travel memoirs as luminous as the Mediterranean air from the acclaimed author of the Alexandria Quartet who is featured in The Durrells in Corfu. Time Born in India, acclaimed British novelist and poet, Lawrence Durrell lived in Corfu as a young man, enjoying salt air, cobalt water, and an unfettered bohemian lifestyle along with his brother Gerald, who would also go on to be a writer and a naturalist. Their real life family is portrayed in the PBS Masterpiece production The Durrells in Corfu. Over the following decades, he rambled around the Mediterranean, making homes in Egypt, Cyprus, and Greece, always bringing his poet's eye to document his experiences.

Prospero's Cell Along with his family, Lawrence Durrell spent four youthful years on Corfu, an island jewel with beauty to match its fascinating history. While his brother Gerald was collecting animals as a budding naturalist, Lawrence fished, drank, and lived with the natives in the years leading up to World War II, sheltered from the tumult that was engulfing Europe until finally he could ignore the world no longer. Durrell left for Alexandria to serve his country as a wartime diplomat but never forgot the wonders of Corfu, captured so beautifully in this brilliant memoir.

The Economist In its gem-like miniature quality, Prospero's Cell is among the best books ever written. The New York Times Reflections on a Marine Venus After four tortuous wartime years in Egypt, Durrell finds a post on the island of Rhodes where the British are attempting to return Greece to the sleepy peace it enjoyed in the 1930s From a dip in the frigid Aegean Sea which jolts him awake for what feels like the first time in years Durrell breathes in the joys of island life meeting villagers eating exotic food and throwing back endless bottles of ouzo Sparkles with intense energy brilliance and fire The Christian Science Monitor Spirit of Place In these letters and essays Durrell exhibits the power of poetic observation that continues to make his travel writing so vivid and fresh He traveled not to sightsee but to live and made homes in the Mediterranean Egypt France Yugoslavia and Argentina Each time he landed he rooted himself deep into the native soil taking in not just the sights and sounds of his new land but the essential character of the country which he brings to life in these pages The letters depict the brio of Durrell s existence with intoxicating vividness The New York Times
