

Sophie never stopped talking. She even sleep-talked. It was as if someone had turned her onto talk mode, and broken the switch. Actually, there was no switch. No "Off" at all.

Lewis liked to listen. He had turned ten a month ago and his parents still wondered when he would start talking. He sat behind Sophie in class and listened to her. He never got annoyed, he thought she was funny. Every now and then he would say something to her like "Uh-huh" or "Wow" and when he felt like making a big effort he might even say, "What happened next?" or "Did you really?"

They were both pretty clever kids in their own ways. Fortunately for Lewis he showed how clever he was in his schoolwork. Unfortunately for Sophie, she was too busy talking, (and being sent to the corner, to the office, and to the principal) to get much work done.

One Monday afternoon, when it was Lewis' turn on message delivery duty, and Sophie had spent twenty minutes writing, "I will be quiet in class" over and over on the whiteboard, their teacher sent them both out together to run a couple of errands.
