Civil-Military Relations in

Lebanon Are John Knudsen, Tine Gade, 2017-08-31 This volume examines Lebanon's post 2011 security dilemmas and the tenuous civil military relations. The Syrian civil war has strained the Lebanese Armed Forces (LAF) cohesion and threatens its neutrality, its most valued assets in a divided society. The spill over from the Syrian civil war and Hezbollah's military engagement has magnified the security challenges facing the Army, making it a target. Massive foreign grants have sought to strengthen its military capability, stabilize the country and contain the Syria crisis. However, as this volume demonstrates, the real weakness of the LAF is not its lack of sophisticated armoury but the fragile civil military relations that compromise its fighting power, cripple its neutrality and expose it to accusations of partisanship and political bias. This testifies to both the importance of and the challenges facing multi-confessional armies in deeply divided countries. Pakistan at Seventy-Five Andrea Fleschenberg, Sarah Holz, Arslan Waheed, 2023-04-01 Pakistan at Seventy Five investigates the country's multi-layered issues in the context of a post-colonial polity marked by diversity, heterogeneity, stratification and volatility. This wide-ranging discourse engages with diverse formal and informal actors as markers of identity, historical events and social conditions as well as global geo-political and neo-colonial centre-periphery relations that shape narratives about the nation and the constructions of a sense of belonging. The editors and contributors utilise multi-faceted and multi-layered approaches focusing on 1) identities and questions of diversity and pluralism, 2) horizontal and vertical technologies and geographies of power related to questions of trust, legitimacy, participation and governance, and 3) the distribution, deprivation and vulnerability of sociocultural, political and human resources. Studying Pakistan has been subject to different approaches including decolonial, indigenous and feminist perspectives. This volume draws out alternative epistemological and methodological viewpoints, the insider-outsider conundrum, centre-periphery asymmetries, hegemonic discourses and practices within Pakistan's national and international academy. The chapter contributions are the outcome of a unique interdisciplinary research cooperation at Quaid-i-Azam University, focussing on early career researchers. Presenting a multiplicity of voices and trajectories, Pakistan at Seventy Five provides new input to existing debates and directions for future scholarly endeavour.
