The Discourse of Character Education Peter Smagorinsky, Joel Taxel, 2005-05-06 In this book Peter Smagorinsky and Joel Taxel analyze the ways in which the perennial issue of character education has been articulated in the United States both historically and in the current

character education movement that began in earnest in the 1990s The goal is to uncover the ideological nature of different conceptions of character education The authors show how the current discourses are a continuation of discourse streams through which character education and the national purpose have been debated for hundreds of years most recently in what are known as the Culture Wars the intense often passionate debates about morality culture and values carried out by politicians religious groups social policy foundations and a wide range of political commentators and citizens in which the various stakeholders have sought influence over a wide range of social and economic issues including education The centerpiece is a discourse analysis of proposals funded by the United States Department of Education s Office of Educational Research and Improvement OERI Discourse profiles from sets of states that exhibit two distinct conceptions of character are examined and the documents from particular states are placed in dialogue with the OERI Request for Proposals One profile reflects the dominant perspective promoted in the U S based on an authoritarian view in which young people are indoctrinated into the value system of presumably virtuous adults through didactic instruction The other reflects the well established yet currently marginal discourse emphasizing attention to the whole environment in which character is developed and enacted and in which reflection on morality rather than didactic instruction in morality is the primary instructional approach By focusing on these two distinct regions and their conceptions of character the authors situate the character education movement at the turn of the twenty first century in the context of historical notions about the nature of character and regional conceptions regarding the nature of societal organization This enlightening volume is relevant to scholars practitioners policymakers and students across the field of education particularly those involved in character education moral development discourse analysis history and cultural foundations of education and related fields and to the wider public interested in character education

Strategies in Personal Finance Keith V. Smith, Jane A. Smith, 2005 Every family should have financial goals for the future Being unprepared can lead to monetary chaos Financial Management of Your Future deals with strategies for accomplishing financial goals What investment returns are necessary to achieve explicit family goals How are returns logically related to risks for investment opportunities that are considered Can different families have different tolerances for experiencing investment risk Why is asset allocation the key investment decision for most families What are the characteristics and valuations of bonds stocks mutual funds real estate and international securities that a family might consider How should a family construct monitor and revise a portfolio of investments over time How should careful estate planning be done by a family in order to delay or avoid taxes in passing on property to their children grandchildren and favorite charities And how can some of the concepts and techniques from modern portfolio theory be helpful to a family as it attempts to answer these questions This book deals with financial strategies for three adult age categories 1 Families of ages twenty to forty in the earlier years of active employment child raising and the beginning of saving for retirement 2 Families of ages forty to sixty in their years of maximum income high educational expenses for their children and more serious thinking about forthcoming retirement and 3 Families of ages sixty to eighty having retired or approaching full retirement The Motley Fool Personal Finance Workbook David Gardner, Tom Gardner, 2003-01-02 Financial advice covering handling money investments savings spending insurance and estate planning Personal property law in Nigeria Mike A.A. Ozekhome, 2019 This book addresses core issues of personal property law in Nigeria from a comparative perspective It offers a detailed account of the laws governing personal property and the different lightweight reforms undertaken mainly through case law before the enactment of the Secured Transactions in Movable Assets Act in 2017 The book draws insights from the United States UCC article 9 being unarguably the first law that introduced the concept of modern secured transactions law and was influential to many common and civilian law systems in reforming their personal property laws Given that personal property law is fairly new in Nigeria and also in Africa in general the main aim of the book is to provide judges and academic researchers with a rich collection of tested solutions from jurisdictions that have experimented with modern secured transactions law for several decades The primary and secondary works that were referenced in the book have tracked the different epochal shifts in legal thinking and their significances This may assist scholars and judges in Nigeria to come up with bespoke interpretations of the Act and solutions to underlying problems on credit and security that will satisfy the local conditions as opposed to copying the unaltered solutions from the United States and other advanced systems Personal Finance, Getting Along and Getting Ahead J. Norman Swaton, 1981
