Habitats & Communities Gr. 4-6 Natalie Regier,2005-01-01 Realizing the importance and fragility of the world's ecosystems is critical for today's students. Acid rain, global warming, the endangerment and extinction of a variety of plants and animals are real threats to our very survival. Our unit takes a close look at the different habitats that make up the world's ecosystems and the components of these habitats that make them unique. Our unit also examines aspects such as the adaptation of plants and animals to change and the infringement of civilization. It is hoped that students will not only gain a better understanding of the world they live in but may also be more concerned with protecting the fragile environment of which we are all a part of. This Animal Science lesson provides a teacher and student section with a variety of reading passages, activities, crossword, word search, and answer key to create a well-rounded lesson plan. English Skills, 2006 Based on good English teaching, this easy-to-use course encourages children to make positive, sustainable progress leading to high standards of achievement. Each book contains lessons, activities, and learning tasks for all the skills covered, providing progressive development in each area. Cells: The Building Blocks of Life Gr. 7-8 Nat Reed,2005-01-01 CELL ebrate as your students study the topic of cells in an exciting yet integrated fashion. We study the differences between one-celled and multi-celled organisms. Characteristics and functions of cells are studied as well as an investigation of tissues, organs, organ systems, and diffusion and osmosis. Student assignments include an amoeba labelling exercise, cell reproduction, plant and animal cells, and a study of the bizarre nature of cancer cells. The use of the microscope is an important part of this unit, and information on the proper use of this instrument is provided. This Life Science lesson provides a teacher and student section with a variety of reading passages, activities, crossword, word search, and answer key to create a well-rounded lesson plan.
