communication from linguistic semiotic stylistic poetic ethical and sociocultural perspectives Ultimately the author shares his reflections on the semiotic specificities of Rumi s mystical discourse and the ethics of translation generally The book will be valuable to scholars and students of Islamic philosophy Iranian studies and translation studies but will appeal to anyone interested in the cultural dichotomies of the West and Islam Sufism and Transcendentalism Elham Shayegh,2020-03-09

The rhetoric of cultural identity generally goes in two potential directions One a universal line that insists on an overall pattern of integration and harmony among all peoples regardless of their differences and the other a line which suggests that various cultures are so specific and different that they will eventually enter into clash violence and war Drawing upon Derrida s concept of differance I will point out that such rhetoric as examples of current political discourses fail to open the concept of cultural identity through redefining its relationship with otherness This will be accompanied by poetry of Rumi and Whitman to suggest that their literary language through its non dialectic characteristics is familiar with the problematic of identity and has the ability to form a cross cultural dialogue Sufism And Transcendentalism envisages the possibility of dialogue against the background of political conflict The Wisdom of the Body Christine Valters Paintner,2017-03-03

Sufi Talks Robert Frager,2012-12-19 Once a woman brought her son to the thirteenth century Turkish Sufi master Nasruddin complaining that the boy had an uncontrollable sweet tooth She asked Nasruddin to tell the boy to stop eating sweets He said to bring him back in four weeks When they returned he said Boy I order you to stop eating sweets The mother asked Couldn't you have said that at the beginning Why make us wait four weeks No I couldn't have said that even two weeks ago Nasruddin replied Why not asked the mother Because I love sweets myself First I had to control my own love for them Only then could I tell your son to stop eating them That is words are empty unless backed by experience says Robert Frager People will not change until they hear from those who have lived what they teach Frager has indeed lived his teaching Founder of the Institute for Transpersonal Psychology in 1975 in 1976 he became a student of the Sufi master Muzaffer Efendi Since becoming a sheikh in 1985 he has given many sohbet's a Turkish word for the spiritual conversations Sufi teachers hold to inspire their students The sohbet's he presents here are compiled from his talks over the past decade and represent Sufism as it is now practiced in the United States Frager believes that the wisdom in such talks flows through the sheikh from his teacher and his teacher's teacher all the way back to the Prophet Mohammad and God the sheikh is merely a channel for something greater than any individual Moreover these talks are not lectures but rather living connections going both ways between heart and heart Indeed the warm personal immediacy to Frager's voice is rarely found Like the tales of Nasruddin he teaches through colorful anecdote and metaphors Sufi practice has two sides he says one is to develop our love of God the other is to become less self centered We need both just as a bird needs both wings to fly How can I put my knowledge into practice is the question we must ask As the Qur'an states those who fail to live by their understanding are like donkeys carrying a load of books The books won't change them They can carry the holiest books but will still be donkeys Among the practices Frager teaches are zikr or remembrance of God through chanting halvet or spiritual retreat and adab or right action Thus do we develop character or rather restore the character we had at birth I've never seen a baby with a bad character he says We are all born in a pure state With hard work and God's blessings we can return to it Other topics include Obstacles on the Path Reducing Narcissism Inner Work Prayer Marriage Generosity Taking Responsibility and Waking before We Die No matter what one's religion the reader will find such universal wisdom in this book that he will agree with Frager's teacher Muzaffer Efendi who once advised You can tell these stories ten thousand times and people will still benefit from them

Learning from Other Religions David Brown,2023-11-16 One common argument against taking the notion of divine revelation seriously is the extraordinary diversity which exists between the world s major religions How can God be thought to have spoken to humanity when the conclusions drawn are so very different David Brown authoritatively and persuasively tackles this issue head on He refutes the idea that all faiths necessarily culminate in Christianity or that they can be reduced to some facile lowest common denominator arguing instead that ideas may emerge more naturally in one context than another Sometimes because of its own singular situation another religion has proved to be more perceptive on a particular issue than Christianity At other times no religion will hold the ultimate answer because what can be asserted is heavily dependent on what is viable both scientifically and philosophically Although complete reconciliation is impossible a richer notion of revelation so the author suggests can be the result
