Constructing Reform Vaughan Higgins,2002 The productivity and efficiency of farmers in both Australia and other Western nations has assumed increasing significance on the formal political agenda since the 1960s Economic changes at both the international and national level have raised questions among economists farm organisations and state agencies concerning the capacity of some farmers to be able to earn an adequate income and thereby contribute to national agricultural output and efficiency While these concerns have contributed to policies of farm subsidisation in Europe Britain and the United States Australia has taken a somewhat different path Farm reconstruction and adjustment programs were created from the early 1970s that sought to restructure the farm sector by encouraging so called unviable farmers to exit the industry while providing incentives for remaining producers to improve their productivity Economists in both the public service and academic institutions have welcomed such policies arguing that intervention in assisting processes of adjustment makes agricultural resources available for those farmers who will use them in the most efficient manner while ensuring also that the welfare needs of unviable farmers are met The aim of this book is to explore the events techniques and forms of calculation through which economic expertise in Australia has come to assume increased authority on matters of agricultural change and the consequences of this for how strategies of restructuring are assembled as objects of knowledge ABA Journal ,1957-01 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association New Trends in Process Control and Production Management Lenka Štofová,Petra Szaryszová,2017-09-27 Dynamic economics technological changes increasing pressure from competition and customers to improve manufacturing and services are some of the major challenges to enterprises these days New ways of improving organizational activities and management processes have to be created in order to allow enterprises to manage the seemingly intensifying competitive markets successfully Enterprises apply business optimizing solutions to meet new challenges and conditions But also ensuring effective development for long term competitiveness in a global environment This is necessary for the application of qualitative changes in the industrial policy New Trends in Process Control and Production Management MTS 2017 is the collection of research papers from authors from seven countries around the world They present case studies and empirical research which illustrates the progressive trends in business process management and the drive to achieve enterprise development and sustainability Global Securities Litigation and Enforcement Pierre-Henri Conac,Martin Gelter,2019-01-03 Global Securities Litigation and Enforcement provides a clear and exhaustive description of the national regime for the enforcement of securities legislation in cases of misrepresentation on financial markets It covers 29 jurisdictions worldwide some of them are important although their law is not well known It will be an invaluable resource for academics and students of securities litigation as well as for lawyers policy makers and regulators The book also provides a comprehensive contribution debate on whether public or private enforcement is preferable in terms of development of securities markets It will appeal to those interested in the legal origins theory and in comparative securities law and shows that the classification of jurisdictions within legal families does not explain the differences in legal regimes While US securities law often serves as a model for international convergence some of its elements such as securities class actions have not been adopted worldwide Medical Record George Frederick Shrady,Thomas Lathrop Stedman,1915 Business and Climate Change Governance T. Börzel,R. Hamann,2013-09-12 How and why do business organisations contribute to climate change governance The contributors findings on South Africa Kenya and Germany demonstrate that business contributions to the mitigation and adaptation to climate change vary significantly Regional Economic Integration and Dispute Settlement in East Asia Anna G Tevini,2018-06-28 The accession of the People s Republic of China to the World Trade Organization WTO in 2001 significantly transformed the global economy both de facto and de jure At the regional level China s WTO accession served as an important catalyst for the establishment of Regional Trade Agreements RTAs in East Asia This was a novel development for the region since East Asian States had previously followed a largely informal market driven approach to regional economic integration By contrast rules based economic integration involving East Asian States was traditionally limited to multilateral integration under the GATT WTO framework This book systematically analyses and explains the development nature and challenges of rules based regional economic integration in East Asia with particular attention to the region s first four RTAs While also addressing the socio economic historical and political factors influencing the development of RTAs in East Asia the book focuses on the legal institutions governing economic integration in the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN as well as under the ASEAN China Comprehensive Economic Co Operation Agreement ACFTA the Japan Singapore New Age Economic Partnership Agreement JSEPA and the Mainland China Hong Kong Closer Economic Partnership Arrangement CEPA The book provides a systematic comparative account of the scope depth and hard law versus soft law quality of rules based economic integration achieved under these four RTAs in the areas of trade in goods and services investment liberalisation and protection labour mobility and dispute settlement
