An Antidote to the English Norman Macdougall, 2001 The Auld Alliance originated as an offensive and defensive treaty made by John King of Scots and Philip IV of France directed against Edward I of England in 1295 6 Remarkably this original treaty of Paris Dunfermline was frequently renewed throughout the course of the next two and a half centuries becoming latterly a cornerstone of Scottish foreign policy Combining narrative and analysis this book covers the uncertain beginnings of the Alliance moving on to the major military commitment of the Scots to the French side in the Hundred Years War 1337 1453 with England the subsequent settlement of Scots in France in the fifteenth century the close naval and military links between James IV and Louis XII of France in the early sixteenth century and the climax and end of the Alliance following the marriage of Francis II of France to Mary Queen of Scots 1558 Scotia ,1996 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991
