

INTEGRATED SOCIAL PRACTICE CLASS: ASSIGNMENT ONE

The Integrated Social Practice Class is based on the principle that learning is best achieved through authentic experiences. Although students traditionally attend lecture sessions, it usually is not emphasized in the learning process. Thus, the student's engagement in learning and experimenting with these materials is that student's responsibility. Learning is a consequence of the learning process by completing the Integrated Social Practice Class. The learning objectives of the Integrated Social Practice Class are:

- a. To help you understand the interrelationships among the social systems involved in social planning, social housing and housing the student's career.
- b. To obtain hands-on practice in the preparation of a social work paper for
- c. To develop skills in analyzing transactions and applying social concepts.
- d. To develop skills in the application of social concepts.
- e. To evaluate the social systems involved in housing the student's career and the impact of the social system.

Student's Role:

There are a number of members of the social work in the Student's Association. One of these is the Student's Association.
