The background is an abstract digital composition. It features a series of dark, teal-colored rectangular blocks and planes that create a sense of depth and perspective, resembling a modern architectural interior or a complex geometric structure. A bright, glowing light source emanates from a central rectangular opening in the distance, casting a strong beam of light that illuminates the surrounding surfaces and creates a gradient of colors from deep blue to bright white. The overall aesthetic is clean, modern, and high-tech.
