Pork Chop Recipes Sharon Guzman,2017-01-23 A pork chop is a cut of meat obtained from the backbone of the pork An adult pork chop usually contains part of a vertebra and part of its corresponding rib and is generally large enough to be served as an individual portion for a person In the case of lamb chops however for a single person usually serve several chops because in the lamb are smaller than in the pig Pork chops can be sold marinated to give them more flavors As the pork needs to be cooked longer than the veal and therefore there is a risk of drying the meat too much the pork chops can be seasoned in brine to retain moisture These chops can be sold both fresh and smoked It is one of the most prized meat cuts of this animal With a good price tasty and tender it allows to prepare dishes consistent and very easy to cook Many people enjoy simply with a good chop of fried or grilled pork but also it is worth to take into account more complete recipes like the cooked encebollada with mango sauce saut ed cabbage or with bacon and cheese In addition the marinated pork chop and red wine sauce is a really exquisite dish Pork Chop Ray "DR.
