Catholic Philosophy of Education Mario O. D'Souza, 2016-10-01 Today's pluralist and multicultural society raises questions about how to teach religiously and ethnically diverse students in Catholic schools A Catholic Philosophy of Education addresses these challenges by examining the documents from the Roman Congregation for Catholic Education alongside the writings of Jacques Maritain and Bernard Lonergan Mario D Souza proposes a contemporary formulation for a Catholic philosophy of education in which the ideals of Catholicism form the basis for the mission of the Catholic school Drawing on the Church's educational documents and informed by Maritain and Lonergan D Souza explains how the unifying anthropology of Catholic education enables Catholic schools to serve amidst diversity by avoiding the extremes of religious exclusivism and fundamentalism on the one hand and relativism and individualism on the other He explores the aims of Catholic schools in relation to students teachers and society and the relationship between goodness discipline and knowledge He argues that students must be educated for personal and communal freedom and authenticity and to strive for the common good suggesting how a Catholic philosophy of education can provide the framework for such personal and communal transformation Essential reading for new and experienced Catholic educators A Catholic Philosophy of Education demonstrates that Maritain and Lonergan have much to offer in service of an education that is liberating instructive illuminating and integrative Authentic Voices, Discerning Hearts Thomas Knieps-Port le Roi, Aldegonde Brenninkmeijer-Werhahn, 2016 One may argue that the Second Vatican Council simply came too early to address the questions that swept over Christianity and Catholicism with the sexual revolution There is little doubt however that although the popes in the post conciliar era made marriage and family issues a matter of decision at the highest level they did not succeed in thwarting the growing discrepancy between the church's moral teaching in these matters and the moral insights of a large portion of the Catholic faithful The two Synods of Bishops which Pope Francis called in 2014 and 2015 can be regarded as a new attempt of the magisterium to come to terms with the problems that appeared on the horizon in the 1960s The present volume addresses some of the major theological and ethical questions at stake and provides perspectives and resources for a renewed discourse of the church on marriage and family Series INTAMS Studies on Marriage and Family INTAMS Studien zu Ehe und Familie Vol 1 Subject Religious Studies Program of Priestly Formation in the United States of America, Sixth Edition USCCB Committee on Clergy Consecrated Life and Vocations, 2023-12-11 Local norms for structuring seminarian formation and teaching the next generation of priests Seminarians are the future of the priesthood During these formative years they learn what it means to conform their hearts to the service of the Church and develop the charity faithfulness and compassion they will need to minister to their future parishioners The Program of Priestly Formation guides those who teach seminarians with advice on forming compassionate spiritual fathers who will serve their parishioners well It also outlines the structural elements of seminary formation and the various people responsible for accompanying a seminarian through his formation The Program of Priestly Formation Begins with an introduction to priestly formation outlining its foundations in community and its missionary spirit Explores the theological foundations of the ministerial priesthood and the Church's role in promoting priestly vocations Outlines the process of admission into a formation program and local norms for how seminarians are evaluated throughout their education Organizes guidance around the four dimensions of formation human spiritual intellectual and pastoral and how to incorporate these at each stage of seminary formation The Program of Priestly Formation is intended for bishops priests seminary rectors seminary faculties formators and all who minister to seminarians as they fulfill this high call to form missionary disciples and lay the foundation for a lifetime of priestly formation This new edition of the Program features A newly designed cover with beautiful sacred art Colored tabs with paragraph numbers at the top of each page for easy navigation Carefully designed pages to make each page readable organized and inviting A document summary explaining the intended audience the document's origin and the purpose it seeks to serve within the mission of the Church The official text of this work written by the USCCB Committee on Clergy Consecrated Life and Vocations This edition is part of The USCCB Collection from Ascension which features official documents from the United States bishops previously published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops USCCB

Semiotic Approach to the Theology of Inculturation Cyril Orji, 2017-08-31 A Semiotic Approach to the Theology of Inculturation argues that though it is a difficult and delicate task inculturation is still a requisite demand of a World Church and that without it the Church is unrecognisable and unsustainable The book also suggests that the past failures of inculturation experiments in Africa can be overcome only by critically applying the science of semiotics which can serve as an antidote to the nature of human knowing and reductionism that characterised earlier attempts to make Christianity African to the African Drawing from the semiotic works of C S Peirce Clifford Geertz and Bernard Lonergan Cyril Orji shows why semiotics is best suited to an African theology of inculturation and offers ten pinpointed precepts identified as Habits which underline the attentiveness reasonableness and responsibility required in a semiotic approach to a theology of inculturation The Habits are also akin to the imperatives inherent in the notion of catholicity that catholicity is not identified with uniformity but with reconciled diversity and also that catholicity demands different forms in different places times and cultural settings

Liturgy with a Difference Stephen Burns, Bryan Cones, 2019-05-30 Christian churches in recent decades have taken some steps in their practices of liturgy and worship toward acknowledging the graced dignity of human variety But who is still excluded What pernicious norms still govern below the surface and how might they be revealed How do texts gestures and space abet and enforce such norms How might Christian assemblies gather multiple expressions of human difference to propose through Christian liturgy patterns of graced interaction in the world around them Liturgy with a Difference gathers a broad range of international theologians and scholars to interrogate current practices of liturgy and worship in order to unmask ways in which dehumanizing majoritarianisms and presumed norms of gender culture ethnicity and body among others remain at work in congregations Together the chapters in this collection call for a liturgical practice that recognizes and rehearses the vivid richness of God's image found in the human community and glimpsed if only for a moment in liturgical celebration They point a way beyond mere inclusion toward a generous embrace of the many differences that make up the Christian community With contributions from Rachel Mann Teresa Berger Susannah Cornwall Miguel A DeLa Torre Edward Foley W Scott Haldeman Michael Jagessar Bruce T Morrill Kristine Suna Koro and Frank Senn Foreword by Ann Loades

We Give Our Thanks Unto Thee Porter C. Taylor, 2019-04-17 Fr Alexander Schmemmann continues to influence liturgical and sacramental theologies some thirty five years after his death Despite the wide acceptance within Protestant circles of his timeless classic For the Life of the World there has been relatively little written about him from an ecumenical context This volume of collected essays seeks to explore his theological legacy and further his work With essays from leading scholars such as David Fagerberg Bruce Morrill Joyce Zimmerman and more this volume is meant for both teachers and students of liturgical and sacramental theology In an effort to introduce Schmemmann to a wider audience and to celebrate his work through meaningful engagement and dialogue contributors come from a wide variety of ecclesiastical backgrounds Anglican Roman Catholic Orthodox Lutheran Presbyterian Methodist Free Church and more The Eucharist is therefore the manifestation of the Church as the new aeon it is participation in the Kingdom as the parousia as the presence of the Resurrected and Resurrecting Lord It is not the repetition of His advent or coming into the world but the lifting up of the Church into His parousia the Church's participation in His heavenly glory Fr Alexander Schmemmann Introduction to Liturgical Theology p 72 Mercy and the Bible Ronald D. Witherup, PSS,2018 Presents an overview of the Bible's teaching on mercy and why it remains an important theme in our day The Challenges of Vatican II for an Authentic Indian Catholic Church Suhas Pereira,2021 The Vatican II was an event of a new facelift for the entire edifice of the Catholic ecclesiology It called for the renewal in the universal Catholic Church This book deals with the question How can the Catholic Church in India accept the council's challenge for renewal and become truly Indian in its being and essence Undertaking a systematic examination of the post conciliar ecclesiological development in the Indian Catholic Church in its existential multi religious and multi cultural context the author attempts to develop an ecclesiological reflection for the Indian context Theological Foundations of Worship (Worship Foundations) Khalia J. Williams,Mark A. Lamport,2021-07-20 This volume brings together an ecumenical team of scholars to present key theological concepts related to worship to help readers articulate their own theology of worship Contributors explore the history of theology's impact on worship practices across the Christian tradition highlighting themes such as creation pneumatology sanctification and mission The book includes introductions by N T Wright and Nicholas Wolterstorff A forthcoming volume will address the historical foundations of worship Inclusion and Sexuality in Catholic Higher Education Mark A. Levand,2023-05-23 Drawing on research conducted at 17 Catholic universities in the United States making it the largest study of its kind this volume explores effective practice in improving institutional policy relating to issues of sexuality The text calls attention to campus cultures of fear shame or denial around sexuality and highlights possible points of institutional resistance to changes in policy Discussing topics such as sexual identity sexuality education in the curriculum Title IX employee termination and morality clauses the book shows how staff and faculty are crucial in effecting change across Catholic campuses providing valuable insight into the unspoken rules around sexuality within the shadow culture at Catholic institutions Moreover the text illustrates how institutions can maintain fidelity to Church teachings and even embrace notions of human dignity solidarity and the common good to achieve sexual inclusivity A unique study demonstrating how Catholic teaching can help support inclusive change around issues of sexuality and gender in higher education it ultimately puts forward a practical framework for effecting change and improving student and staff support structures in Catholic institutions It will thus appeal to researchers and academics working in the fields of Higher Education Management Gender and Sexuality in Education Religion Gender and Sexuality and the Sociology of Religion Ten Years of the Newsletter Committee on Divine Worship,2025-05-01 This third compendium of the Committee on Divine Worship's Newsletter is a resource and research tool for liturgists scholars priests and pastoral leaders on the liturgical developments for the Catholic Church in the United States of America from 2011 through 2020 As historical documents the newsletters are provided as originally published The liturgical topics covered in this compendium concern The implementation of the third edition of The Roman Missal The Year of Faith Historical and pastoral reflections on the fiftieth anniversary of the promulgation of Sacrosanctum concilium The inclusion of Sts John XXIII and John Paul II on the General Roman Calendar Ritual translation updates and implementation notes pertaining to the Dedication of a Church and an Altar Exorcisms Matrimony Baptism Confirmation Blessing of Oils and the Liturgy of the Hours Liturgia Dei Adam Couchman, 2025-10-10 What does it mean to worship More often than not we understand worship to be something that we perform for God If that is the case then worship is ultimately a human action that flows from human effort How would our understanding of worship change though if we took as our starting point that Jesus is a fully human and fully divine worshiper Does it then mean that God is worshiping In responding to these questions Liturgia Dei suggests that worship is not primarily something we do for God but something God is eternally performing Worship is the eternal glorification of God that extends from and returns to the eternal relations of Father Son and Mother Spirit The church joins in this worship to through and with Jesus Christ The Church as the Family of God and the Care for Creation Khisi, Maximian, 2019-02-19 Of late there has grown in African Catholicism the concept of Church as the Family of God Familia Dei which has enhanced greater social cohesion among the members of the Church and strengthened interpersonal relationships among them This book is an endeavour to offer a path towards the solution of the problem of environmental crisis through the theological discipline of ecclesiology Using the Catholic Archdiocese of Lilongwe's understanding of Church as the Family of God the book concludes that the application of the concept of Church as family of God while bringing great social cohesion among the people failed to extend to human relationships with the natural world in fact It has broadened the human feeling of superiority over the natural environment The book provides an ecclesiological complementarity which promotes a universal fraternity among people and the natural world and recommends an ecclesiological concept of Church as New Creation Nova creatio This would serve as a call for human beings to make a new ecological conversion leading new lifestyles change in their models of nature worldviews and change in the models of production and consumption Life in the Trinity Philip Krill, James McCullough, 2022-11-30 Informed by Scripture and the church fathers and inspired by the ressourcement theology of Henri de Lubac Hans Urs von Balthasar and Pope Benedict XVI this book advances new insight and practical application of the recent retrieval of Trinitarian theology and its vision of human transformation known as deification Father Philip Krill contributes to a growing retrieval of Trinitarian Christianity and a synthesis of the Western and Eastern theological traditions A final section on theosis or deification rounds out this exploration of God's full intentions for the redemption of humanity Being Salvation Brandon R. Peterson, 2017-06-15 Karl Rahner's theory of how Jesus saves has garnered criticism Rahner's portrayal of Jesus has been described by Hans Urs von Balthasar as merely notifying the world of God's salvific will Others have doubted whether Rahner thinks Jesus causes salvation at all. Even Rahner's advocates style his Jesus as a kind of sign, albeit an effective one, the primal Sacrament. But another major and yet underappreciated dimension to Rahner's christology is his identification of Jesus as Representative, both our representative before God and God's before us. As such a Representative Jesus is not a redemptive agent who accomplishes human salvation simply through an act, and even less is he a mere exemplar or notification. This Jesus does not only do our salvation; rather, he is the locus of salvation itself. He not only opens heaven's gates but he creates heaven with his own resurrection. Being Salvation uncovers this dimension within Rahner's theology, relating it to other historical examples of representative soteriology, e.g., Irenaeus's theory of recapitulation and to Rahner's more familiar sacramental soteriological categories. It gives special attention to Rahner's intense attention to the church fathers early in his career, including Rahner's untranslated theology dissertation E latera Christi, From the Side of Christ, The Voice of the Bridegroom. Benjamin A. Roberts, 2021-02-02. Preaching is a relational act. This book explores the relationship between the preacher and the assembly as a spousal relationship. Written by a parish pastor with a doctorate in preaching and rooted in the Roman Catholic notion of the priest as bridegroom of the church, this work examines characteristics of the spousal relationship between husband and wife and then provides an analysis of the ministerial priesthood through this nuptial lens. This nuptial reflection on the ministerial priesthood is then applied to preaching. This book presents a nuptial hermeneutic or vision for preaching and the implications of this vision for the assembly, the preacher, the homily, and the homiletical method. The appendices include a one-page strategy for preaching, summarizing the homiletical method, a rubric for homily evaluation by members of the assembly, and two sample homilies.
