Law and Revolution Nimer Sultany, 2017-11-24 Taking the Arab Spring as its case study this book explores the role of law and constitutions during societal upheavals and critically evaluates the different trajectories they could follow in a revolutionary setting It urges a rethinking of major categories in political legal and constitutional theory in light of the Arab Spring The book is a novel and comprehensive examination of the constitutional order that preceded and followed the Arab Spring in Egypt Tunisia Libya Morocco Jordan Algeria Oman and Bahrain Drawing on a wide range of primary sources including an in depth analysis of recent court rulings in several Arab countries the book illustrates the contradictory roles of law and constitutions The book also contrasts the Arab Spring with other revolutionary situations and demonstrates how the Arab Spring provides a laboratory for examining scholarly ideas about revolutions legitimacy legality continuity popular sovereignty and constituent power With a new preface from the author addressing developments in the Arab Spring

The Fluctuating Sea Saygin Salgirli, 2021-08-12 This volume fluctuates between conceptualizations of movement either movements that buildings in the medieval

Mediterranean facilitated or the movements of the users and audiences of architecture From medieval Anatolia to Southern France and the Genoese colony of Pera across Constantinople The Fluctuating Sea investigates how the relationship between movement and the experiences of a multiplicity of users with different social backgrounds can provide a new perspective on architectural history The book acknowledges the shared characteristics of medieval Mediterranean architecture but it also argues that for the majority of people inhabiting the fragmented microecologies of the Mediterranean architecture was a highly localized phenomenon It is the connectivity of such localized experiences that The Fluctuating Sea uncovers The Fluctuating Sea is a valuable source for students and scholars of the medieval Mediterranean and architectural history

Innovations for Land Management, Governance, and Land Rights for Sustainable Urban Transitions Ahmed M. Soliman, Ramin Keivani, 2024-07-27 The transformation of the built environment during the last few decades has placed enormous demands for land About 7.7 billion people live on the planet which is expected to increase by 2.53 billion in just 30 years with the highest growth projected to be in less developed regions The spreading of urban informality in cities of the Global South leads to chaotic informal economies and an inability to capitalize on urban rural economies of scale and exchange The combination of socioeconomic and climate change vulnerability in urban centres is having a double impact on already poverty stricken and marginalized groups especially women racialized and ethnic minority groups leading to what has come to be known as climate injustice Land constitutes a main component of urban development and is the main asset for informal urban communities in the Middle East region The State and urban planners can aim to regulate the growth of informal land markets or represent the interests of the citizens However in reality the increasing retreat or absence of the public authorities the crisis of confidence between the governed and governing and the deficit of urban policies to address the multitude of generated challenges cannot be concealed This volume examines three main themes land management and governance in the era of sustainability Legal informal and illegal land tenures and the broader socioeconomic changes impacting land and housing delivery It investigates the correlations transitions and interactions between the various forces and multi stakeholders that control and adjust the land delivery system for low income groups and the urban poor This includes exploring mechanisms for correcting urban inequalities between central and peripheral quarters and the modes of shared governance Finally the volume also discusses developing national land policies based on legal instruments that connect the implementation of the SDGs land and tenure security as critical drivers for more sustainable land delivery realization

The New Spirit of Islamism Ezgi Basaran, 2024-05-02 This book explains the aspirations and concerns of Islamist actors in the aftermath of the Arab Uprisings by looking at two sets of relationships between Turkey's ruling AKP and the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood and the AKP and Tunisia's Ennahda It presents a unique analysis of the interplay between the AKP Ennahda and the Muslim Brotherhood characterizing the actors the structure and the main features of the relationship and thereby illuminating a political confluence among these three critical Islamist entities in the aftermath of the Arab Uprisings Existing scholarship has assumed that this relationship revolves primarily around an ideological Islamist agenda however this research demonstrates a more complex and nuanced situation Ezgi Basaran puts forward that the interplay was not based on an aspiration of building an ideological Islamist bloc in the MENA region but rather revolved around the concept of political success and had a strong neoliberal ethos Basaran draws on data collected from over 60 interviews with high level members of the AKP Ennahda and Muslim Brotherhood to demonstrate how in the hope of achieving success and legitimization Ennahda and the Muslim Brotherhood have relied on the managerial prescriptions provided by the AKP The contents of this success formula were derived from the AKP s experience as an Islamist party in power since 2002 and includes tactics on crisis evasion legitimization winning elections and maintaining power

Postcoloniality and Statehood Priyanka Chandra, 2025-09-12 This book traces the evolution of the postcolonial state and the social contract in Egypt It problematises two of the most ubiquitous and contentious terms democratisation and development within the context of Egypt and the larger Global South It also subverts western centric ideas of global politics to examine why certain aspects of Egypt s history and policies have received more attention than others This volume presents a study of state society relations the shift to Infitah the impact of neoliberalisation from 1970 to 2011 and social responses to it It argues that the Arab Uprisings of 2011 were not isolated events but a result of a longue dur e political economic history Through the prism of postcoloniality it shows how citizenship is constantly renegotiated in view of the ongoing neoliberalisation and the impact of such social transformations on the nature of the postcolonial state It juxtaposes the role of the state and society against global political and economic landscapes to address the larger question what is the nature of the postcolonial state This book will be of interest to a wide array of scholars and researchers from politics and international relations sociology and social anthropology social theory political theory postcolonialism and Global South studies

Egypt Azmi Bishara, 2022-07-14 Azmi Bishara s seminal study of the 2011 Egyptian Revolution chronicles in granular detail the lead up to the momentous uprisings and the subsequent transition and coup The book critically investigates the social and economic conditions that formed the backdrop to the revolution and the complex challenges posed by the transition from authoritarianism to democracy Part One From July Coup to January Revolution goes back to what is called the 1952 revolution or the 1952 Coup d tat and traces events until 2011 when Hosni Mubarak stepped down as the president of Egypt after weeks of protest It highlights the relationship between the presidency and the army to show that contrary to popular belief the presidency grew gradually stronger at the expense of other institutions especially the army and reached its apogee under Mubarak Part Two From Revolution to Coup d Etat covers the critical stages from when the military junta took over the governing of Egypt as the Supreme Council of the Armed Forces SCAF and the election of Morsi up until the coup to overthrow his presidency Using a democratic transition theory perspective Azmi Bishara explains the failure of the democratic transition and how it has impacted on Arab revolutions ever since Written while the revolutions were taking place this book conveys a sense of immediacy and urgency as Bishara makes wide ranging assessments with many of his forecasts corroborated in later years The book is renowned for its use of primary source material including interviews statistics and public opinion polls thus preserving the memory of the revolution and remaining one of the most comprehensive reference books on the subject to date Democratic Backsliding in Post-Mubarak Egypt Arshad,2024-09-24

Arshad examines the phenomenon of democratic backsliding in post 2011 Egypt Capturing a critical juncture in Egyptian politics this book explains the failure of Egypt's nascent democratic experiment and its relapse into authoritarianism Egypt is the crucial playbook to understand the reversal of a country towards an authoritarian regime and what measures state and non state actors should employ to prevent backsliding The book is an essential model for understanding democratic backsliding through structural and agential factors The former encompasses society politics economics and the military while the latter deals with the choices and attitudes of the leadership during the political transition Providing crucial insights into what went wrong during the democratic transition process this text acts as a guide to curbing the rise of authoritarian regimes in the face of the next potential revolution The book is a valuable resource for scholars who are interested in democratisation authoritarian regimes military leadership political protests and political leadership Explaining Foreign Policy in Post-Colonial Africa Stephen M. Magu,2021-01-02

This book explores foreign policy developments in post colonial Africa A continental foreign policy is a tenuous proposition yet new African states emerged out of armed resistance and advocacy from regional allies such as the Bandung Conference and the League of Arab States Ghana was the first Sub Saharan African country to gain independence in 1957 Fourteen more countries gained independence in 1960 alone and by May 1963 when the Organisation of African Unity OAU was formed 30 countries were independent An early OAU committee was the African Liberation Committee ALC tasked to work in the Frontline States FLS to support independence in Southern Africa Pan Africanists in alliance with Brazzaville Casablanca and Monrovia groups approached continental unity differently and regionalism continued to be a major feature Africa's challenges were often magnified by the capitalist democratic versus communist socialist bloc rivalry but through Africa's use and leveraging of IGOs the UN UNDP UNECA GATT NIEO and others to advance development the formation of the African Economic Community OAU's evolution into the AU and other alliances belied collective actions even as Africa implemented decisions that required cooperation uti possidetis maintaining colonial borders containing secession intra and inter state conflicts rebellions and building RECs and a united Africa as envisioned by Pan Africanists worked better collectively
