Animals into Art Howard Morphy, 2014-10-30 This book is one of a series of volumes resulting from the World Archaeological Congress September 1986 which addressed world archaeology in its widest sense investigating how people lived in the past and how and why changes took place to result in the forms of society and culture which exist now The series brought together archaeologists and anthropologists from many parts of the world academics from contingent disciplines and also non academics from a wide range of cultural backgrounds who could lend their own expertise to the discussions This book is an exploration of the way in which the animal world features in the works of art of a variety of cultures of different times and places Contributors have adopted a variety of perspectives for looking at the complex ways in which past and present humans have interrelated with beings they classify as animals Some of the approaches are predominantly economic and ecological some are symbolic and others philosophical or theological All these different views are included in the interpretation of the artworks of the past revealing some of the foci and inspirations of cultural attitudes to animals Originally published 1989

The Routledge Companion to Ecstatic Experience in the Ancient World Diana Stein, Sarah Kiehl Costello, Karen Polinger Foster, 2021-12-30 For millennia people have universally engaged in ecstatic experience as an essential element in ritual practice spiritual belief and cultural identification This volume offers the first systematic investigation of its myriad roles and manifestations in the ancient Mediterranean and Near East The twenty nine contributors represent a broad range of scholarly disciplines seeking answers to fundamental questions regarding the patterns and commonalities of this vital aspect of the past How was the experience construed and by what means was it achieved Who was involved Where and when were rites carried out How was it reflected in pictorial arts and written records What was its relation to other components of the sociocultural compact In proposing responses the authors draw upon a wealth of original research in many fields generating new perspectives and thought provoking often surprising conclusions With their abundant cross cultural and cross temporal references the chapters mutually enrich each other and collectively deepen our understanding of ecstatic phenomena thousands of years ago Another noteworthy feature of the book is its illustrative content including commissioned reconstructions of ecstatic scenarios and pairings of works of Bronze Age and modern psychedelic art Scholars students and other readers interested in antiquity comparative religion and the social and cognitive sciences will find much to explore in the fascinating realm of ecstatic experience in the ancient world
