Jones, 2021-11-12 The Influence and Predictability of Socioeconomic Factors of the 2018 PARCC Middle School ELA Scores in New Jersey By Dr. Charlene F. Jones This quantitative research The Influence and Predictability of Socioeconomic Factors of the 2018 PARCC Middle School ELA Scores in New Jersey examines the predictive power of socioeconomic parental and school district factors on student academic achievement. The combined influence of parent education with a bachelor's degree or higher and free and reduced price lunch factors demonstrate the highest statistical significance for predictability in this study. All fundamental variables utilized support a greater discussion on how we as parents and educators can influence standardized test results and ensure local education policies and recommendations therein are research based and implemented effectively in diverse communities. Particularly during this new era post pandemic we seek successful strategies to combat learning loss, increase educational opportunities and predict where possible assessment results all in support of the future of public education. Childcare, Early Education and Social Inequality Hans-Peter Blossfeld, Nevena Kulic, Jan Skopek, Moris Triventi, 2017-04-28 Recognising that social change over recent decades has strengthened the need for early childhood education and care, this book seeks to answer what role this plays in creating and compensating for social inequalities in educational attainment.
