Werhane,2023-08-16 In this collection the editors again bring together papers that either exemplify the crossing of disciplinary boundaries or that allow us to do so in and through the conversations they create The chapters were chosen based on their relevance to similar themes as were discussed in the first volume By reviewing historical developments in the literature around gender and organization and by drawing on recent scholarship that disrupts the traditional masculine imaginaries that plague leadership constructs this book challenges us to radically revise our gendered thinking about leading in organizations The authors included in this volume offer alternative interdisciplinary perspectives on the gender constructs that inform the organizing that takes place in business and society The book delves deeply into how relationality as concept and practice can help us frame a more inclusive approach to gender within contemporary organizations The Core of Leadership Jim Trunick, 2013-08-21

Leadership is a choice You can choose to stay positive and in the moment or you can let yourself be full of doubt and negativity It takes as much energy to be frustrated as it does to be resourceful and it's hard to be both at the same time We tend to think of leadership as flashing swords generals on horseback and Winston Churchill For all the achievement billed as leadership I believe real leadership goes deeper I've learned that true leadership is to win from the middle Power lies in the middle of the organization at its core in its heart We hear about strengthening the core as a physical fitness or martial arts term We strengthen our physical core through nutrition and exercise to be better at delivering or taking a punch And life is a punch we all know it To strengthen our core is to first discover the core of ourselves To get to the core of leadership we need to peel down through the layers of our lives At the core of an apple are the seeds At the core of our bodies is the heart The seed is the essence of the apple and the heart is the essence of our humanity and in both lie the promise of new growth Our core captures and radiates our life and to be better requires strength The center of who we are Humble and sacrificed is the more true measure of teaching ourselves and others to win from the middle Airport Leadership Development Program Seth B. The Leader Coach: Exposing Your Soul Don Levin, Terry Edwards, 2007-02-28 Leaders today come in all shapes sizes colors and creeds It is also quite common to use the term manager and leader interchangeably This book is about the person who strives to take the giant step to become the Leader Coach While certainly still a manager and a leader the role of Leader Coach is all about the special relationship that develops between Leader Coach and Player through the art of effective communication By developing your team players through the use of the Social Performance and Developmental Conversations a Leader Coach can help release achievement drive and enhance performance in their players It is also about the joy and self actualization that occurs during the Journey when a Leader Coach and the Player mutually take the risk and expose their souls to one another during this evolutionary and sometimes extraordinary process The Leadership Coaching Coefficient Triangle is presented for the leader to conduct self analysis to determine current and future leadership capabilities This book is designed as a pragmatic how to book for the leader who is serious about building or improving his or her organization one person at a time Intended more as a guide the authors share personal insights anecdotes and experiences from both their professional and personal lives that have made them successful in these endeavors From servant leadership and selfless giving on the part of the Leader Coach to the ownership of the change that takes place
