Naffine, 2017-07-05 The leading articles on gender and justice within Anglo-American legal theory are assembled in this volume. The essays are drawn primarily from the writings of lawyers working in the common law tradition and they mainly examine the justice of legal institutions. Due to the close kinship between political and legal theories of justice, the book also includes a selection of the work of the more prominent political theorists of justice and gender. Modern Medical Science William Cowper Conant, 1887 The Academy and Literature, 1912 Cultural Theory Imre Szeman, Timothy

Kaposy, 2010-04-26 Cultural Theory: An Anthology is a collection of the essential readings that have shaped and defined the field of contemporary cultural theory. Features a historically diverse and methodologically concise collection of readings including rare essays such as Pierre Bourdieu's Forms of Capital 1986, Gilles Deleuze's Postscript on Societies of Control 1992, and Fredric Jameson's Reification and Utopia in Mass Culture 1979. Offers a radical new approach to teaching and studying cultural theory with material arranged around the central areas of inquiry in contemporary cultural study: the status and significance of culture itself, power, ideology, temporality, space and scale, and subjectivity. Section introductions designed to assist the student reader provide an overview of each piece, explaining the context in which it was written and offering a brief intellectual biography of the author. A large annotated bibliography of primary and secondary works for each author and topic promotes further research and discussion. Features a useful glossary of critical terms. The Bookman, 1909 A

Seeking Love in Modern Britain charts the emergence of the modern British single through an account of the dating industry that sprang up to serve men and women. It shows how amid a period of unprecedented sexual and social change the single became a key unisex identity and lifestyle. From around 1970 a growing cottage style matchmaking industry in Britain was offering the romantically solo a choice between computer dating firms such as Dateline or Compudate introduction agencies and the lonely hearts pages of Private Eye Time Out and others. Zoe Strimpel reveals how this rapidly expanding landscape of services was catering to a new breed of single people and how by the late 1990s singleness had become the culturally mainstream wholly expected part of the romantic life cycle that it is today. Refuting the widespread idea that the Internet invented modern dating this book uses an eclectic and engaging range of first person accounts and snapshots from the time to show that the story of contemporary romance mediated courtship and singleness began in a time long before Tinder.
