Topics explored here include opera and pop music from around the world Australian Aboriginal oral poetry political instrumentalization and censorship of song lyrics and teaching foreign language using songs.

Nocturnes Kazuo Ishiguro, 2009-05-29. From the winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature and author of the Booker Prize winning novel The Remains of the Day comes an inspired sequence of stories as affecting as it is beautiful. A fine and moving collection displaying Ishiguro's unique combination of the sad the stoic and the consoling. The Guardian. In this sublime story cycle Kazuo Ishiguro explores love music and the passage of time. This quintet ranges from Italian piazzas to the Malvern Hills a London flat to the hush hush floor of an exclusive Hollywood hotel. Along the way we meet young dreamers café musicians and faded stars all at some moment of reckoning. Gentle intimate and witty Nocturnes is underscored by a haunting theme the struggle to restoke life's romance even as relationships flounder and youthful hopes recede.

Theatre of the People Laurence Raw, 2015-10-29. Throughout World War II audiences in the United Kingdom craved entertainment even during the country's darkest days. During this period actor manager Donald Wolfit and his theatre troupe toured Great Britain and Europe often at great risk. After the war Wolfit broadened his tour bringing his brand of Shakespearean theatre to North American audiences. Wolfit believed that theatre should be accessible to everyone regardless of their socioeconomic origins. It was this quality above all that accounted for his huge popularity throughout the fifteen years of his operation. In Theatre of the People Donald Wolfit's Shakespearean Productions 1937-1953 Laurence Raw looks at this tenacious personality whose determination to serve the nation by performing Shakespeare inspired audiences and fellow actors. Drawing on a series of hitherto unpublished materials including letters and interviews this part biography and part social history creates a vivid picture of what life was like for the touring actor during WWII and beyond. Recreating twelve of Wolfit's touring dates throughout Great Britain and North America this volume also demonstrates theatre's importance as a source of mass entertainment and education as well as a propaganda tool. Despite Wolfit's popular appeal at the time he was doomed to remain on the periphery of the theatrical establishment. This book contends that Wolfit deserves to be recognized for his efforts in maintaining public morale during times of stress. Theatre of the People will appeal not only to those interested in drama but also to students and scholars of history and popular entertainment in the 1940s and 1950s

Distant Melodies Edward Dusinberre, 2022-11-08 An engaging blend of memoir and music history Distant Melodies explores the changing ideas of home displacement and return through the lives and chamber music of four composers How does music played and heard over many years inform one's sense of home Writing during the COVID 19 pandemic when travel is forbidden and distance felt anew Edward Dusinberre first violinist of the world renowned Tchaikovsky Quartet searches for answers in the music of composers whose relationships to home shaped the pursuit of their craft Antonín Dvořák Edward Elgar Béla Bartók and Benjamin Britten Dusinberre has lived abroad for three decades At the age of 21 he left his native England to pursue music studies at the Juilliard School in New York Three years later he moved to Boulder Colorado Drawn to the stories of Dvořák's Bartók's and Britten's American sojourns as they tried to reconcile their new surroundings with nostalgia for their homelands Dusinberre reflects on his own evolving relationship to England and the idea of home As he visits and imagines some of the places crucial to these composers' creative inspiration Dusinberre also reflects on Elgar's unusual Piano Quintet and the landscapes that inspired it Combining travel writing with revealing insights into the working lives of string quartet musicians Distant Melodies is a moving and humorous meditation on the relationship between music and home

Venice Nightscapes Giuseppe Tomasella, 2025-11-18 This book rethinks the urban night through an interdisciplinary exploration of Venice's nighttime economies social practices and cultural narratives Interpreting nightscapes as lived contested and imaginative spaces the book introduces the genius noctis a critical lens for engaging with the identity of the nocturnal city Bridging Southern European perspectives with international night studies scholarship local nightscapes emerge as complex geographical phenomena resulting from the dynamic interplay of historical and contemporary experiences This inquiry considers the multiple interdependencies among dominant narratives and alternative understandings while emphasising the roles of darkness in shaping local nightlife ecosystems and urban identities Aiming at providing hybrid and creative methodologies for the study of urban nights the analysis interweaves cultural geography urban studies and literary theory This book resonates with researchers and students across cultural geography urban studies mobility studies anthropology and environmental humanities particularly those investigating nightscapes Mediterranean urban cultures or interdisciplinary place based inquiry

Figurativity across Domains, Modalities and Research Practices Alexandra Bagasheva, Nelly Tincheva, 2022-01-05 The human ability to think non-literally has attracted the interest of various scholars for thousands of years Over the centuries they have defined and studied an extensive variety of tropes such as metaphor metonymy synecdoche allegory and irony in terms of their communicative effectiveness and stylistic aesthetics and basically interpreted these simply as figurative linguistic expressions and mere flourishes adding flavour to underlying non-figurative content Today figurativity is understood as constitutive of various processes of human comprehension of the world human communicative interactions and everyday human functioning This volume constitutes a representative selection of studies that provide novel answers to the open questions of how non literal thought and non literal expression in various media and discourses co exist The book focuses on figurative cognitive operations enabling non literal thought language and other semiotic expressions The unique set of viewpoints and authors contributions upholds the cognitive approach to figurativity it positions figurativity in various discursive environments compares and contrasts figurativity in various languages and cultures and traces the multimodal interplay of figurativity

The Summer We Crossed Europe in the Rain Kazuo Ishiguro, 2024-04-30 From the Nobel Prize winning author of Klara and the Sun and Never Let Me Go comes a gorgeously illustrated volume of lyrics written for the platinum selling Grammy nominated jazz singer Stacey Kent Memorably introduced by Ishiguro himself The Summer We Crossed Europe in the Rain collects the lyrics of sixteen songs he wrote for world renowned American singer Stacey Kent which were set to music by her partner Jim Tomlinson An exquisite coming together of the literary and musical worlds the lyrics are infused with a sense of yearning melancholy love and the romance of travel and liminal spaces Further exploring the notion of collaboration and interpretation the collection is illustrated by the acclaimed Italian artist Bianca Bagnarelli whose work perfectly captures the atmosphere and sensibility of the songs

Relational Designs in Literature and the Arts, 2012-01-01 This collection focuses on texts that address the other arts from painting to photography from the stage to the screen and from avant garde experiments to mass culture Despite their diversity of object and approach the essays in Relational Designs coalesce around the argument that representations are defined by relations and dynamics rather than intrinsic features This rationale is supported by the discourses and methodologies favoured by the book s contributors their approaches offer a cross section of the intellectual and critical environment of our time The book illustrates the critical possibilities that derive from the broad range of modes of inquiry poststructuralist criticism gender studies postcolonial studies new historicism that the book s four sections bring to bear on a wealth of intermedial practices But Relational Designs compounds such critical emphases with the voice of the practitioner the book is rounded off by an interview in which a contemporary novelist discusses her attraction to the other arts in terms that extend the book s insights and bridge the gap between academic discourse and artistic practice
