Perfect Timing Pennsylvania Series Volume 2:

Crossroads Barbara Cameron, 2014-08-05 Emma decided long ago that she was going to marry Isaac Stoltzfus. Since she was ten, she'd dreamt of being Isaac's wife, of fixing up a small farmhouse, of raising boppli together. But now Isaac's Rumschpringe has introduced him to new ways, and much to Emma's dismay, Isaac seems to be enjoying them. Is the man Emma now sees in Isaac the same man she fell in love with all those years ago? He seems more like a stranger who wears jeans and a short haircut and listens to rock music. He has moved out of his parents' home, gotten a job, and worse, wants Emma to join him in the English world. How can she possibly leave behind her family, friends, church, and all the dreams she once had for her future with Isaac? But if she loves him, how can she not? Emma is at a crossroads. And her decision will change her life forever.

The Bridge of Peace Cindy Woodsmall, 2010-08-31 Love alone isn't enough to overcome some obstacles. Lena Kauffman is a young Old Order Amish schoolteacher who has dealt all her life with attention raised by a noticeable birthmark on her cheek. Having learned to move past the stares and whispers, Lena channels her zest for living into her love of teaching. But tensions mount as she is challenged to work with a rebellious young man and deal with several crises at the schoolhouse that threaten her other students. Her lack of submission and use of ideas that don't line up with the Old Ways strengthen the school board's case as they begin to believe that Lena is behind all the trouble. One member of the school board, Grey Graber, feels trapped by his own stifling circumstances. His wife, Elsie, has shut him out of her life, and he doesn't know how long he can continue to live as if nothing is wrong. As the two finally come to a place of working toward a better marriage, tragedy befalls their family. Lena and Grey have been life-long friends, but their relationship begins to crumble amidst unsettling deceptions propelling each of them to finally face their own secrets. Can they both find a way past their losses and discover the strength to build a new bridge?

Pennsylvania Birds, 1998 The First Modern Campaign Gary A. Donaldson, 2007-06-15 The presidential campaign that pitted Richard M Nixon against John F Kennedy was the most significant political campaign since World War II With Eisenhower's tenure at an end American society broke with the culture of the war years This social shift was reflected in and provoked by new trends in American political life and political campaigning all of which made 1960 a landmark year in American politics In this engaging book Gary A Donaldson tells the story of Kennedy versus Nixon with a sharp eye for the salient political developments and a keen sense of the drama of an election that was unlike any other the nation had experienced The election of 1960 was also an orchestrated political drama organized as a sweeping campaign from coast to coast and staged for a national television audience This made it the first modern campaign in which the television media changed the dynamics of presidential politics and in which photographs charisma and direct appeals to voters counted as they had never done before It was also an election of intense personal rivalry made all the more spirited by the prejudice against Kennedy s Catholicism and his intention to widen the American political arena Ideological shifts within the parties as they combined with innovations in campaigning would mark a clear divide in politics as it was practiced and politics as it would have to be practiced in the future Yet not since Theodore White s journalistic account The Making of the President has attention been paid to the full 1960 campaign as it played out in the early primaries and then culminated in the November election Donaldson shows why the whole political season is critical to understanding American politics today The First Modern Campaign is essential and engaging reading for anyone interested in contemporary politics in the United States
