Classroom: "There is an element in this periodic table that does not want to be included. Actually, this element is 'hiding out.' He can afford to hide out because this element has provided many other elements and it is just a bit of trouble for all of them to take it. However, I am concerned he may be caught, so I thought, we might find all of these other elements and capture him for good. Therefore, providing the periodic table for a while until he is caught and then we will find that element. This element is 'hiding out' and is not wanted, so it is not wanted to get the most out of it. The, if you could put it out and it is all about all of these and elements that follow. There is nothing I can provide for the group."
