

Leaving School Poem

Leaving

Primary school is over now with high school coming fast,
I have to tell you this last year has simply been a blast.

Shortly you'll be moving on to somewhere fresh and new,
This school will be so different when we do not have you.

We've watched you grow and turn into the person that you are,
To read and write and count with ease, you simply are a star!

We want you to remember, a message from us all,
Live your life and chase your dreams, whether big or small.

You are unique and wonderful and sadly, will be missed.
So grab life and forever hold it tightly in your fist.

Goodbye from us and thank you as it has been so much fun,
Remember you are special and you're simply number one!

Irish Children's Literature and Culture Keith O'Sullivan, Valerie Coghlan, 2011-03-17 What constitutes a national literature is rarely straightforward and it is especially complex when discussing writing for young people in an Irish context Until recently there was only a slight body of work that could be classified as Irish children's literature whatever the parameters in comparison with Ireland's contribution to adult literature in the twentieth century This volume looks critically at Irish writing for children from the 1980s to the present examining the work of many writers and illustrators and engaging with all the major forms and genres Topics include the gothic the speculative picturebooks poetry post colonial discourse identity and ethnicity and globalization Modern Irish children's literature is also contextualized in relation to Irish mythology and earlier writings thereby demonstrating the complexity of this fascinating area The contributors who are leading experts in their fields examine a range of texts in relation to contemporary literary and cultural theory and also in relation to writing for adults thereby inviting a consideration of how well writing for a young audience can compare with writing for an adult one

This groundbreaking work is essential reading for all interested in Irish literature childhood and children's literature

Moving Poetry Shirley Geok-lin Lim, Page Richards, 2001-11-01 One book to be read two ways A delightful collection of children's poems Ideas on inspiring creativity in young people 160 children took part in poetry writing workshops led by a group of Hong Kong's foremost poets Their poems shed an intriguing light on life in Hong Kong seen by a new generation This anthology has a particular significance for parents and teachers It shows that using English freely and creatively is an important step towards full command of the language The poet editors convey the fun of this venture and explain the techniques used to encourage the children's natural creativity Their essays provide a source of ideas for teachers interested in exploring creative writing Another section of poems by the poet teachers and undergraduate assistants drawn from the creative writing classes at the University of Hong Kong provides added pleasure for the poetry lover This collection showcasing the talents of budding young Hong Kong poets projecting their powerful and diverse voices into the future is for people who enjoy poetry and for those who wish to nurture the natural creativity of children Beautiful poems an admirable project
