Ode to Pizza

Oh, pizza.
You are so cheesy.
You make me drool.
You are better than tacos and spaghetti.
Pizza, I love how gooey and melty you are.
I wish I could eat you every day.
Pizza, this world is a yummy place
because of you.

Teaching Poetry in a Digital World Stefani Boutelier, Sarah J. Donovan, 2025-04-30 Teaching Poetry in a Digital World supports English language arts ELA educators for grades 6-12 to incorporate digital literacy in their classrooms by teaching the reading and writing of poetry. In an increasingly digital age, educators must adapt to meet the changing needs and interests of their students by incorporating technology into the classroom. This book introduces its audience to the ePoetry Framework. This framework demonstrates how poetry might present itself in a literacy-based unit with the benefit of a technology medium to share with the world. Examples include teaching zip-ode poetry incorporating haiku with the creation of GIFs and ethically discussing AI with sonnet poems. With adaptable lesson plans and assessments as well as educator examples, the book will inspire teachers to create intentional student-centered ePoetry units. The book is aligned with ELA literacy standards, International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) educator standards, and National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE)'s position statement for integrating technology into ELA classrooms. It is a key resource for secondary school educators teaching ELA creative writing and digital media. It's Elementary! Boni Hamilton, 2007 Guides readers through the process of planning and implementing an integrated technology program on a shoestring budget.

Reading, Writing, and Thinking Paul L. Thomas, Joe Kincheloe, 2006-01-01 In a world gone mad with standardized curricula and the degradation of the profession of teaching, P. L. Thomas and Joe Kincheloe attempt to bring sanity back to the discussion of the teaching of some of the basic features of the educational process. In Reading, Writing, and Thinking: The Postformal Basics, the authors take on the rational irrationality of current imperial pedagogical practices, providing readers with provocative insights into the bizarre assumptions surrounding the contemporary teaching of reading, writing, and thinking. The authors are obsessed with producing an accessible book for multiple audiences: parents, teachers, scholars of education that moves beyond critique to a new domain of the social and educational imagination. Readers of Thomas and Kincheloe's book embark on a mind trip beginning with what is and moving to the realm of what could be. In this context, they introduce readers to a critical theory of thinking, postformalism, that moves the social and educational conversation to a new terrain of individual and social consciousness. Tired of the same educational policies and solutions in the teaching of reading, writing, and thinking, the authors become socio-psychic explorers who move readers past the boundaries of contemporary pedagogical perception.
