Dimensions of Register Variation Douglas

Biber, 1995-08-31 Douglas Biber's new book extends and refines the research and methodology reported in his groundbreaking Variation Across Speech and Writing CUP 1988 In Dimensions of Register Variation he gives a linguistic analysis of register in four widely differing languages English Nukulaelae Tuvaluan Korean and Somali Using the multi dimensional analytical framework employed in his earlier work Biber carries out a principled comparison of both synchronic and diachronic patterns of variation across the four languages Striking similarities as well as differences emerge allowing Biber to predict for the first time cross linguistic universals of register variation This major new work will provide the foundation for the further investigation of cross linguistic universals governing the pattern of discourse variation across registers and will be of wide interest to any scholar interested in style register and literacy Home Front Diary 1944 B.G.

Archives of Infamy provides historical and archival contexts to the recent translation of Disorderly Families by Arlette Farge and Michel Foucault This volume includes new translations of key texts including a radio address Foucault gave in 1983 that explains the writing process for Disorderly Families two essays by Foucault not readily available in English and a previously untranslated essay by Farge that describes how historians have appropriated Foucault Archives of Infamy pushes past old debates between philosophers and historians to offer a new perspective on the crystallization of ideas of the family gender relations and political power into social relationships and the regimes of power they engender Contributors Roger Chartier Collège de France Stuart Elden U of Warwick Arlette Farge Centre national de recherche scientifique Michel Foucault 1926-1984 Jean Philippe Guinle Catholic Institute of Paris Michel Heurteaux Pierre Nora cole des Hautes études en Sciences Sociales Michael Rey 1953-1993 Thomas Scott Railton Elizabeth Wingrove U of Michigan Come Rain or Shine Pam
