theory by feminist queer and antiracist scholars Saint Aubin considers the literary means by which Cobain creates the persona of a young white heterosexual man who expresses masochistic and melancholic behaviors On the one hand this individual welcomes pain and humiliation as atonement for unpardonable sins on the other he experiences a profound sense of loss and grief seeking death as the ultimate act of pleasure The first person narrators and characters that populate Cobain's texts underscore the political and aesthetic repercussions of his art Cobain's distinctive version of grunge understood as a subculture a literary genre and a cultural practice represents a specific performance of race and gender one that facilitates an understanding of the self as part of a larger social order Saint Aubin approaches Cobain's writings independently of the artist's biography positioning these texts within the tradition of postmodern representations of masculinity in twentieth century American fiction while also suggesting connections to European Romantic traditions from the nineteenth century that postulate a relation between melancholy or depression and creativity In turn through Saint Aubin's elegant analysis Cobain's creative writings illuminate contradictions and inconsistencies within psychoanalytic theory itself concerning the intersection of masculinity masochism melancholy and the death drive By foregrounding Cobain's ability to challenge coextensive links between gender sexuality and race The Pleasures of Death reveals how the cultural politics and aesthetics of this tragic icon's works align with feminist strategies invite queer readings and perform antiracist critiques of American culture

The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun, 2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto Modernism and prompts a reconsideration of its canonical texts and figures Contrary to many artists of Modernism who devised highly individualistic aesthetic styles the artists of Pool strove towards a universal art of humanity that was rooted in all human nature and psychology
