■ Investment Management – The investment management function is responsible for the selection and management of investments on behalf of the client. This function is typically performed by a separate entity, such as an investment manager or a fund manager, and is often subject to regulatory oversight.

Abstract

Based on a 1994 IRS study, the average itemized deduction for mortgage interest is $1,000. If you are in the 28% bracket, that alone will provide you with $280 in savings. The average savings is $160.
