New Frontiers in Popular Romance Susan Fanetti, 2022-06-07 In the twenty first century the romance genre has gained a growing academic response including the creation of the International Association for the Study of Popular Romance Popular romance has long been so ignored and maligned that seemingly every scholarly work on it opens with a lengthy defense of the genre and its value for academic study Even the early scholarly works on the genre approach it in ways that while primarily respectful make sweeping generalizations about popular romance its texts and its readers This essay collection examines the position of the romance genre in the twenty first century and the ways in which romance responds to and influences the culture and community in which it exists Essays are divided into six sections which cover the genre s relationship with masculinity the importance of consent historical romance representation social status and web based romance fiction

University Press This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts personal and professional settings and cultures The work is well referenced providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives Reviewed by Dr George F Simons on amazon com Please see Claude H l ne Mayer s interview related to the handbook in LeanHealth Talks published by Bernadette Bruckner <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VNXA9sWuWo> Please see Claude H l ne Mayer s interview related to the handbook published in Iran News Daily <https://newspaper.irandaily.ir/nid/6941/pid/6/type/0> The Food of Love Frank Frankfort Moore,1909
