Modern Love and Poems of the English Roadside, with Poems and Ballads George Meredith, 2013-01-08 Modern Love and Poems of the English Roadside occupies a distinctive and somewhat notorious place within George Meredith's already unique body of work Modern Love is now best known for the emotionally intense sonnet cycle which Meredith's own contemporaries dismissed as scandalously confessional and indiscreet While individual sonnets from the work have been anthologized the complete cycle is rarely included and the original edition has not been reprinted since its first appearance in 1862 This edition restores the original publication and supplements it with a range of accompanying materials that will re introduce Meredith's astonishing collection of poetry to a new generation of readers

Littell's Living Age, 1904 The Living Age, 1897 British History in the Nineteenth Century George Macaulay Trevelyan, 1923 British History in the Nineteenth Century

(1782-1901) George Macaulay Trevelyan, 1928 Supreme Attachments Kerry McSweeney, 2016-12-05 The Victorian poetry of sexual love between men and women has not been as fully studied as other components of the imaginative literature of the period and some of the attention it has received has been more concerned with the society and ideology of the age than with the poetry or the love This study attempts an integrated account of the three elements with particular emphasis on the close reading of poems Chapters are devoted to the distinguishing features of Victorian love poetry Browning's dramatic lyrics Tennyson's Maud and the lyrics from Princess women poets Barrett Browning Christina Rossetti and Emily Dickinson Clough's three long poems of contemporary life Meredith's Modern Love the lyrics written by Morris and Dante Rossetti during the late 1860s and early 1870s when the latter was conducting an affair with Morris' wife and two elegiac sequences the bereavement odes from Patmore's Unknown Eros and Hardy's Poems of 1912 13 A final chapter uses the love poetry of D H Lawrence to point up continuities between Victorian and later love poetry The Heart's Events Patricia M. Ball, 2014-01-13 Dr Ball offers an analysis and evaluation of a number of Victorian long poems and groups of lyrics which trace the course of close personal relationships Her argument is that whereas Romantic treatment of such material was limited the Victorian poets not only made this emotional territory their own but explored it with vigour variety and enterprise and great technical resource This is apparent as Dr Ball shows whether the poets concern themselves with crises such as loss through death In Memoriam Patmore's odes of bereavement or breakdown Modern Love Maud James Lee's Wife or whether they portray the intricate flux of mutual attraction and courtship as in Amours de Voyage The Bothie of Tober-na-Vuolich and The Angel in the House The Heart's Events brings out strongly the experimental vitality and range of Victorian poetry and in particular its sensitive imaginative response to the subtleties of psychological time and change in its records of the inner histories of love Vanity Fair, 1922 Exceptional Photoplays, 1921 Novel-Poetry Emily Allen, Dino Franco Felluga, 2024-09-05 Novel Poetry examines the verse novel a hybrid genre that emerged in the middle decades of Britain's nineteenth century to make a larger claim about the nature of genre and formal structures for time action and identity that cross genres The volume uncovers trajectories of literary influence that structure our approach to literature and affect how we shape our lives lives which are often constrained by cause and effect and narrative driven ways of approaching time and possibility Novel Poetry tracks an alternative way of thinking about time and event that was inspired by the French Revolution popularized by Lord Byron and explored by experimental Victorian poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning Robert Browning Arthur Hugh Clough and George Meredith The volume turns to the work of philosophers Alain Badiou Jean Pierre Dupuy and Slavoj Žižek to theorize this alternative mode which it aligns with the futur antérieur The temporality of the future anterior disrupts both the novel's realist chronologies and the expressivist lyric's cult of the moment thus liberating possibilities for collective action Ranging widely across romantic lyric poetry Victorian novels and nineteenth century and contemporary literary theory Novel Poetry asks what alternative structures and temporalities does a focus on either realistic narrative or the lyric moment occlude Are there ways of thinking about lived experience and personal or collective agency that do not conform to traditional models ways that the verse novel might help us to explore What might be gained today from trying to think about ourselves and our world outside of established frameworks that are now so naturalized as to feel almost inescapable This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 licence
