

Graduation Speech

Good afternoon, dear faculty, staff, family, friends, and graduates. It is an honor to be speaking with you here today. Graduates of the class of 2012, CONGRATULATIONS!!!

While I was very honored to be invited to be the graduate speaker at the 2012 International Studies graduation ceremony, I admit that writing this speech was even harder than writing my thesis. And believe me, I would have never imagined that there would be anything harder than that. The hard part about it is that I was told that my graduation speech had to make you laugh first, then cry, and then inspire you. And it had to be short... So as you can see, that's not a very easy task to accomplish. But I'll try.

As I was thinking about this speech and reflecting on my experiences here at the Department of International Studies as a graduate student, I came up with a perfect analogy for my and my fellow

This is the unadulterated true life story of how God brought me from a caterpillar to a beautiful butterfly with all the messy stages in between Through many trials and tribulations my life is being shaped into the person God intends me to be The Bible says in Ephesians 5 8 10 20 KJV For ye were sometimes darkness but now are ye light in the Lord walk as children of the light For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name our Lord Jesus Christ The author wants to thank all her family and friends for it is not our beginning that determines our ending but it is our repentance and salvation through Jesus Christ and His blood covenant that restores our relationships and saves our lives Nothing but the blood of Jesus Which cross is your cross We all must choose one no matter what Jesus has the middle The cross on the right is salvation and the one on the left is for unbelievers Ready when You Are, Mr. Coppola, Mr. Spielberg, Mr. Crowe Jerry Ziesmer,2000 Once a year the world gathers around their television sets and views that glorious tribute the film industry pays to itself By the end of Oscar night a handful of emotional writers and directors and stars have blinked back tears as they stared into the spotlight and thanked God their parents and even their make up artist Few ever think to acknowledge the individual who gasses up the engine of movie making partially because the job by nature is invisible Even the job title is suspiciously low key But no movie has ever been made or made well without the character who toils just outside the spotlight He arranged for the spotlight hired the spotlight operator and even made sure that it was trained correctly on the stars At the end of the day there would be no movie screens no Oscar winners no finished films good or bad without the Assistant Director Database and Expert Systems Applications Robert Wrembel,Gabriele Kotsis,A Min Tjoa,Ismail Khalil,2025-09-21 The two volume set LNCS 16046 16047 constitutes the proceedings of the 36th International Conference on Database and Expert Systems Applications DEXA 2025 held in Bangkok Thailand in August 25 27 2025 The 35 full and 22 short papers presented in this set together with 3 invited talks were carefully reviewed and selected from 123 submissions They were organized in topical sections as follows Part I Industrial Keynote Invited Talks Large Language Models Data Quality Machine Learning Artificial Intelligence Applications Classification Techniques Part II Image Processing Analytics and Vision Systems Recommender Techniques Data Integration Optimisation Methods Graph Applications Analytics Security Privacy Benchmarks and Surveys Money Jungle Benjamin Chesluk,2007-09-11 For more than a century Times Square has mesmerized the world with the spectacle of its dazzling supersigns its theaters and its often seedy nightlife New York City s iconic crossroads has drawn crowds of revelers thrill seekers and other urban denizens not to mention lavish outpourings of advertising and development money Many have hotly debated the recent transformation of this legendary intersection with voices typically falling into two opposing camps Some applaud a blighted red light district becoming a big budget mainstream destination Others lament an urban zone of lawless possibility being replaced by a Disneyfied theme park version of New York In Money Jungle Benjamin Chesluk shows that what is really at stake in Times Square are fundamental questions about city life questions of power pleasure and what it means to be a citizen in contemporary urban space Chesluk weaves together surprising stories of everyday life in and around the Times Square redevelopment tracing the connections between people from every level of this grand project in social and spatial engineering the developers architects and designers responsible for reshaping the urban public spaces of Times Square and Forty second Street the experimental Midtown Community Court and its Times Square Ink job training program for misdemeanor criminals encounters between NYPD officers and residents of Hell s Kitchen and angry confrontations between city planners and neighborhood activists over the future of the area With an eye for offbeat telling details and a perspective that is at once sympathetic and critical Chesluk documents how the redevelopment has tried sometimes successfully and sometimes not to reshape the people and places of Times Square The result is a colorful and engaging portrait illustrated by stunning photographs by long time local photographer Maggie Hopp of the street life politics economics and cultural forces that mold America s urban centers The Oxford Handbook of Hypo-egoic Phenomena Kirk Warren Brown,Mark R.
