For Our Daughter On Graduation Day

*Today, as you graduate,
one chapter in your life has closed,
and another is about to begin.
The future stands bright before you,
so take hold of your dreams
and no matter what...don't let go.*

*There will be times ahead
when you will feel overwhelmed,
but try not to give up,
for nothing which is worth anything,
comes without hard work and sacrifice.*

*When you were a little girl,
we held your hand.
we guided you and protected you
as best we could.*

*It's time for us to let go now.
There is some pain in that.*

Still, there is also a wonderful sense of pride and accomplishment as we look at the young woman that you have become.

We love you, Sweetheart, and we pray that our love will sustain you.

It's time now... spread your wings and fly!

Lesley Lee Francis, 2015-12-03 Robert Frost observed in his wife Elinor a desire to live a life that goes rather poetically The same could be said of many members of the Frost family over several generations In You Come Too Frost's granddaughter Lesley Lee Francis combines priceless personal memories and rigorous research to create a portrait of Frost and the women including herself whose lives he touched Francis provides a vivid picture of Frost the family man revealing him to be intensely engaged rather than the aloof artist that is commonly portrayed She shares with us the devastation Frost and Elinor experienced when faced with tragic illnesses both physical and mental and the untimely death of family members Elinor's own death added to the poet's despair and unleashed complex feelings throughout the family Francis's mother would lament the toll taken on Elinor by what she perceived as Frost's selfishness in the life he had chosen This is also the story of Lesley Frost Francis's remarkable mother who struggled to emerge from her celebrated father's shadow while as one of the people closest to him sharing his intuitive impulse to write and to indulge their mutual love of books and poetry Francis would herself become yet another writer and like her grandfather and mother before her a teacher despite sharing Frost's sense of being imperfectly academic In addition Francis explores Frost's professional relationships with women outside the family such as the poets Harriet Monroe Amy Lowell and Susan Hayes Ward Francis's invaluable insights into Frost's poetry and her inclusion of previously unpublished family writings and photographs make this book essential to Frost scholarship But You Come Too will appeal to anyone interested in this great poet's life and work It also reveals unforgettable stories of strong independent women and their passion to create and share poetry A Sense of Regard Laura McCullough, 2015 How do
