

Pointless Conversations: Previews

A Brief (But still Pointless) extract about the time monster, Doc Brown...

There are a vast number of examples in all three of the Back to the Future films, where Doc berates Marty for being inquisitorial with the dangers of time traveling. But then does one does something twice as bad.

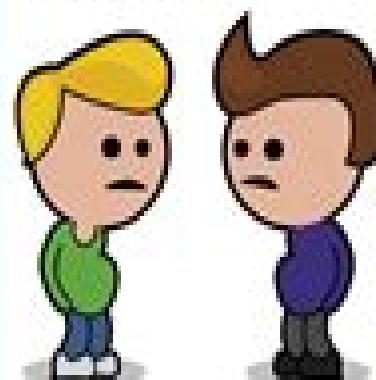

For instance: Near the conclusion of the first film, Doc is annoyed when Marty gives him a letter, warning him of his future incarceration: he goes crackers! But Doc then decides to take Marty's advice and wear a bullet-proof vest anyway, giving his excuse as "what the hell"

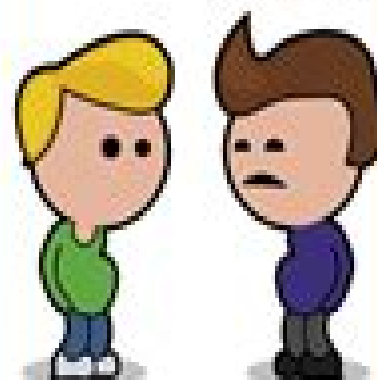

To be honest, I always had a problem with the whole vest scenario. I mean: how HE Doc know he wasn't going to get shot in the face?

It's a fair point: Marty gives no details in his letter.

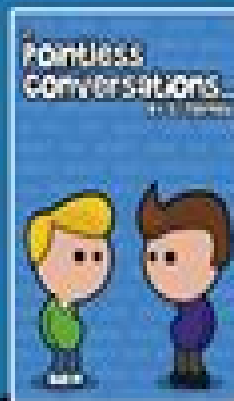

Although if the letter had said "Doc, the next I go back, you will be shot "bracket" several times in the face, pelvis, tumb, spine, kneecaps, kidneys and control "bracket" by terrorists...", the letter may have been a bit...strong.
