The background of the book cover is a surreal landscape painting. In the foreground and middle ground, a vast field is covered with thousands of small, rectangular objects, possibly tiles or stones, in various colors including shades of blue, green, yellow, and red. These objects are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and texture. In the background, a calm body of water stretches to the horizon under a sky with soft, warm colors of orange, pink, and light blue, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. A small, dark silhouette of a boat is visible on the water's surface.

Human Rights and Narrated Lives K. Schaffer,S. Smith,2004-08-20 Personal narratives have become one of the most potent vehicles for advancing human rights claims across the world These two contemporary domains personal narrative and human rights literature and international politics are commonly understood to operate on separate planes This study however examines the ways these intersecting realms unfold and are enfolded in one another in ways both productive of and problematic for the achievement of social justice Human Rights and Narrated Lives explores what happens when autobiographical narratives are produced received and circulated in the field of human rights It asks how personal narratives emerge in local settings how international rights discourse enables and constrains individual and collective subjectivities in narration how personal narratives circulate and take on new meanings in new contexts and how and under what conditions they feed into affect and are affected by the reorganizations of politics in the post cold war postcolonial globalizing human rights contexts To explore these intersections the authors attend the production circulation reception and affective currents of stories in action across local national transnational and global arenas They do so by looking at five case studies in the context of the Truth and Reconciliation processes in South Africa the National Inquiry into the Forced Removal of Indigenous Children from their Families in Australia activism on behalf of former comfort women from South East Asia U S prison activism and democratic reforms in the aftermath of the Tiananmen Square Massacre in China African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay,2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood,2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka s Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood s study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world Theatrical Events Vicki Ann Cremona,2004 Theatrical Events Borders Dynamics and Frames is written to develop the concept of Eventness in Theatre Studies The book as a whole stresses the importance of understanding theatre performances as aesthetic communicative encounters of a wide range of agents and aspects The Theatrical Event concept means not only that performers and spectators meet but also that the specific mental sets backgrounds and cultural contexts they bring in strongly contribute to the character of a particular event Moreover this concept gives space to the study of the role societal developments such as technological political economical or educational ones play in theatrical events Snow on the Cane

The Bounds of Race Dominick LaCapra, 2018-08-06 The concept of race is central to one of the most powerful ideological formations in history Dominick LaCapra argues in his introduction to this volume and understanding the effects of that ideology and its intricate relations with issues of class and gender is one of the most pressing challenges to contemporary modes of thought The eleven essays comprising The Bounds of Race confront this challenge with insight rigor and imagination The authors take on questions of language genre and politics with reference to African American Anglo American African South African Francophone North African British and Afro Hispanic texts Individual chapters discuss writings from an array of genres including homily autobiography the novel children's literature and political and scientific discourse Taken together the essays argue persuasively that the existing canon must be expanded that the protocols of interpretation must be transformed to make a prominent place for such issues as race and that the problem of interpretation cannot be posed in the absence of theoretically informed modes of historical investigation The Bounds of Race provides a subtle analysis of the variable role of racial ideologies and traces the interplay between hegemonic constraints and the strategies of resistance to them Selves in Question Judith Lutge Coullie, Stephan Meyer, Thengani H. Ngwenya, Thomas Olver, 2006-05-31 Wide ranging and engaging Selves in Question considers the various ways in which auto biographical accounts situate and question the self in contemporary southern Africa The twenty seven interviews presented here consider both the ontological status and the representation of the self They remind us that the self is constantly under construction in webs of interlocution and that its status and representation are always in question The contributors therefore look at ways in which auto biographical practices contribute to placing understanding and troubling the self and selves in postcolonies in the current global constellation They examine topics such as the contexts conducive to production processes the contents and forms of auto biographical accounts and finally their impact on the producers and the audience In doing so they map out a multitude of variables including the specific historical juncture geo political locations social positions cultures languages generations and genders in their relations to auto biographical practices Those interviewed include the famous and the hardly known women and men writers and performers who communicate in a variety of languages Afrikaans English Xhosa isiZulu Sesotho and Yiddish An extensive introduction offers a general framework on the contestation of self through auto biography a historical overview of auto biographical representation in South Africa up to the present time an outline of theoretical and thematic issues at stake in southern Africa auto biography and extensive primary and secondary biographies Interviewees Breyten Breytenbach Dennis Brutus Valentine Cascarino Vanitha Chetty Wilfred Cibane Greig Coetzee J M Coetzee Paul Faber David Goldblatt Stephen Gray Dorian Haarhoff Rayda Jacobs Elsa Joubert K Limakatso Kendall Ester Lee Doris Lessing Sindiwe Magona Margaret McCord N Chabani Manganyi Zolani Mkiva Jonathan Morgan Es kia Mphahlele Rob Nixon Mpho Nthunya Robert Scott Gillian Slovo Alex J Thembela Pieter Dirk Uys Johan van Wyk Wilhelm Verwoerd David Wolpe D L P Yali Manisi      Zulu Woman Rebecca Hourwich Reyher, 1999 The riveting life story of a South African woman who marries into the Zulu royal family and after enduring psychological and physical abuses finds the courage to leave

Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel, 2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid s laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here      Struggle Philip Harrison, 2004 Takes you to sites related to the remarkable story of the opposition to South Africa s apartheid system a saga that culminated in the country's transition to non racial democracy in the early 1990s      Pacific Automobilism Gijs Mom, 2022-09-13 The beginning of the 21st century has seen important shifts in mobility cultures around the world as the West's media driven car culture has contrasted with existing local mobilities from rickshaws in India and minibuses in Africa to cycling in China In this expansive volume historian Gijs Mom explores how contemporary mobility has been impacted by social political and economic forces on a global scale as in light of local mobility cultures the car as an adventure machine seems to lose cultural influence in favor of the car's status character      Notes Munger Africana Library, 1980
