Places in the Making Jim Cocola, 2016-05-01 Places in the Making maps a range of twentieth and twenty first century American poets who have used language to evoke the world at various scales Distinct from related traditions including landscape poetry nature poetry and pastoral poetry which tend toward more idealized and transcendent lyric registers this study traces a poetics centered upon more particular and situated engagements with actual places and spaces Close generic predecessors of this mode such as topographical poetry and loco descriptive poetry folded themselves into the various regionalist traditions of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries but place making in modern and contemporary American poetics has extended beyond its immediate environs unfolding at the juncture of the proximate and the remote and establishing transnational planetary and cosmic formations in the process Turning to geography as an interdisciplinary point of departure Places in the Making distinguishes itself by taking a comparative and multiethnic approach considering the relationship between identity and emplacement among a more representative demographic cross section of Americans and extending its inquiry beyond national borders Positing place as a pivotal axis of identification and heralding emplacement as a crucial model for cultural intellectual and political activity in a period marked and imperiled by a tendency toward dislocation the critical vocabulary of this project centers upon the work of place making It attends to a poetics that extends beyond epic and lyric modes while relying simultaneously on auditory and visual effects and proceeding in the interests of environmental advocacy and social justice often in contrast to the more orthodox concerns of literary modernism global capitalism and print culture Focusing on poets of international reputation such as Elizabeth Bishop Pablo Neruda Charles Olson and William Carlos Williams Places in the Making also considers work by more recent figures including Kamau Brathwaite Joy Harjo Myung Mi Kim and Craig Santos Perez In its larger comparative multiethnic and transnational emphases this book addresses questions of particular moment in American literary and cultural studies and aspires to serve as a catalyst for further interdisciplinary work connecting geography and the humanities Words Matter King-Kok Cheung, 2000-02-01 In this age of rapid transition Asian American studies and American studies in general are being reconfigured to reflect global migrations and the diverse populations of the United States Asian American literature in particular has embodied the crisis of identity that is at the heart of larger academic and political debates surrounding diversity and the inclusion and exclusion of immigrant and refugee groups These issues underlie the very principles on which literature culture and art are produced preserved taught and critiqued Words Matter is the first collection of interviews with 20th century Asian American writers The conversations that have been gathered here interviews with twenty writers possessing unique backgrounds perspectives thematic concerns and artistic priorities effectively dispel any easy categorizations of people of Asian descent These writers comment on their own work and speak frankly about aesthetics politics and the challenges they have encountered in pursuing a writing career They address among other issues the expectations attached to the label Asian American the burden of representation shouldered by ethnic artists and the different demands of mainstream and ethnic audiences

The Routledge Companion to Masculinity in American Literature and Culture Lydia R. Cooper, 2021-12-26 Recently the U S has seen a rise in misogynistic and race based violence perpetrated by men expressing a sense of grievance from incels to alt right activists Grounding sociological historical political and economic analyses of masculinity through the lens of cultural narratives in many forms and expressions The Routledge Companion to Masculinity in American Literature and Culture suggests that how we examine the stories that shape us in turn shapes our understanding of our current reality and gives us language for imagining better futures Masculinity is more than a description of traits associated with particular performances of gender It is more than a study of gender and social power It is an examination of the ways in which gender affects our capacity to engage ethically with each other in complex human societies This volume offers essays from a range of established global experts in American masculinity as well as new and upcoming scholars in order to explore not just what masculinity once meant has come to mean and may mean in the future in the U S it also articulates what is at stake with our conceptions of masculinity

Edith and Winnifred Eaton Dominika Ferens, 2002 In this reappraisal of the vision and accomplishments of the Eaton sisters Dominika Ferens departs boldly from the dichotomy that has informed most commentary on them Edith's authentic representations of the Chinese North Americans versus Winnifred's phony portrayals of Japanese characters and settings

The Routledge Companion to Asian American Media Lori Kido Lopez, Vincent Pham, 2017-02-24 The Routledge Companion to Asian American Media offers readers a comprehensive examination of the way that Asian Americans have engaged with media from the long history of Asian American actors and stories that have been featured in mainstream film and television to the birth and development of a distinctly Asian American cinema to the ever shifting frontiers of Asian American digital media Contributor essays focus on new approaches to the study of Asian American media including explorations of transnational and diasporic media studies of intersectional identities encompassed by queer or mixed race Asian Americans and examinations of new media practices that challenge notions of representation participation and

Roger Ebert's Movie Yearbook 2003 Roger Ebert,2002-12-02 Every single new Ebert review Writing America Shelley Fisher Fishkin,2015-11-11 Winner of the John S Tuckey 2017 Lifetime Achievement Award for Mark Twain Scholarship from The Center for Mark Twain Studies American novelist E L Doctorow once observed that literature endows places with meaning Yet as this wide ranging new book vividly illustrates understanding the places that shaped American writers lives and their art can provide deep insight into what makes their literature truly meaningful Published on the eve of the 50th anniversary of the Historic Preservation Act Writing America is a unique passionate and eclectic series of meditations on literature and history covering over 150 important National Register historic sites all pivotal to the stories that make up America from chapels to battlefields from plantations to immigration stations and from theaters to internment camps The book considers not only the traditional sites for literary tourism such as Mark Twain s sumptuous Connecticut home and the peaceful woods surrounding Walden Pond but also locations that highlight the diversity of American literature from the New York tenements that spawned Abraham Cahan s fiction to the Texas pump house that irrigated the fields in which the farm workers central to Gloria Anzald a s poetry picked produce Rather than just providing a cursory overview of these authors achievements acclaimed literary scholar and cultural historian Shelley Fisher Fishkin offers a deep and personal reflection on how key sites bore witness to the struggles of American writers and inspired their dreams She probes the global impact of American writers innovative art and also examines the distinctive contributions to American culture by American writers who wrote in languages other than English including Yiddish Chinese and Spanish Only a scholar with as wide ranging interests as Shelley Fisher Fishkin would dare to bring together in one book writers as diverse as Gloria Anzald a Nicholas Black Elk David Bradley Abraham Cahan S Alice Callahan Raymond Chandler Frank Chin Elizabeth Cook Lynn Countee Cullen Frederick Douglass Paul Laurence Dunbar Jessie Fauset William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald Allen Ginsberg Jovita Gonz lez Rolando Hinojosa Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston Lawson Fusao Inada James Weldon Johnson Erica Jong Maxine Hong Kingston Irena Klepfisz Nella Larsen Emma Lazarus Sinclair Lewis Genny Lim Claude McKay Herman Melville N Scott Momaday William Northup John Okada Min Okubo Simon Ortiz Am rico Paredes John P Parker Ann Petry Tom s Rivera Wendy Rose Morris Rosenfeld John Steinbeck Harriet Beecher Stowe Henry David Thoreau Mark Twain Yoshiko Uchida Tino Villanueva Nathanael West Walt Whitman Richard Wright Hisaye Yamamoto Anzia Yeziarska and Zitkala a Leading readers on an enticing journey across the borders of physical places and imaginative terrains the book includes over 60 images and extended excerpts from a variety of literary works Each chapter ends with resources for further exploration Writing America reveals the alchemy through which American writers have transformed the world around them into art changing their world and ours in the process Iowa Journal of Cultural Studies ,2002 Repetition and Race Amy C. Tang,2016-05-02

Repetition and Race explores the literary forms and critical frameworks occasioned by the widespread institutionalization of liberal multiculturalism by turning to the exemplary case of Asian American literature Whether beheld as model minorities or objects of racist love Asian Americans have long inhabited the uneasy terrain of institutional embrace that characterizes the official antiracism of our contemporary moment Repetition and Race argues that Asian American literature registers and responds to this historical context through formal structures of repetition Forwarding a new dialectical conception of repetition that draws together progress and return motion and stasis agency and subjection creativity and compulsion this book reinterprets the political grammar of four forms of repetition central to minority discourse trauma pastiche intertextuality and self reflexivity Working against narratives of multicultural triumph the book shows how texts by Theresa Cha Susan Choi Karen Tei Yamashita Chang rae Lee and Maxine Hong Kingston use structures of repetition to foreground moments of social and aesthetic impasse suspension or hesitation rather than instances of reversal or resolution Reading Asian American texts for the way they allegorize and negotiate rather than resolve key tensions animating Asian American culture Repetition and Race maps both the penetrating reach of liberal multiculturalism s disciplinary formations and an expanded field of cultural politics for minority literature The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang,2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945
