Paysage Au Pluriel Pour Une Approche Ethnologique Des Paysages

Mauro Agnoletti, Steven Anderson

Paysage Au Pluriel Pour Une Approche Ethnologique Des Paysages:

Paysage au pluriel Claudie Voisenat, 1995 Qu est ce au juste qu'un paysage Pourquoi lui accorde-t-on aujourd'hui tant d'importance Rarement naturel presque toujours façonné par l'homme il est dans nos sociétés le fruit d'une histoire vieille de quatre siècles au cours de laquelle se sont peu à peu transmis et modifiés des modèles paysagers qui déterminent notre perception de l'espace Récemment le paysage est aussi devenu un enjeu social, écologique et économique voire politique Le contrôler c'est bien sûr contrôler l'espace mais plus largement le devenir de notre société et de ses valeurs Il est également un marché potentiel avec ses professionnels ses stratégies d'intervention ses systèmes d'expertise qui jouent souvent de l'ambiguïté entre crise paysagère et crise sociale et du consensus qui assimile de plus en plus le paysage un patrimoine à sauvegarder ou tout au moins gérer Finalement le paysage fonctionne comme un symbole une représentation dont chacun use des fins différentes Et qui mieux que l'ethnologue peut témoigner de la force et parfois de la violence des symboles Ces dix-huit articles sont pour la plupart issus d'un appel d'offres initié par la mission du Patrimoine ethnologique ministériel de la Culture avec la participation du SRETIE ministériel de l'Environnement

Landscape Ecology Françoise Burel, 2003-01-05 Part I Introduction Definition of a Discipline Emergence of Landscape Ecology in the History of Ecology Recognition of Heterogeneity in Ecological Systems Taking Human Activities into Account in Ecological Systems Explicit Accounting for Space and Time Landscape Ecology is based on Scientific Theories Linked to Ecology and Related Discipline

Landscape and Identity in the Modern Basque Country, 1800 to 1936 Maitane Ostolaza, 2022-12-30 Landscape and Identity in the Modern Basque Country 1800 to 1936 studies the relationship between landscape and modern identities in the Basque Country Using an interdisciplinary approach that combines cultural history and geography it analyses the process of historical construction of the Basque landscape highlighting its multiple political social and cultural meanings The book is divided into two parts the first examines the discourses images and representations of the Basque landscape the second examines landscape practices through tourism hiking and mountaineering Focusing on the Basque case but establishing numerous connections with comparable phenomena in Western Europe the book demonstrates that the landscape became a structuring element insofar as it helped shape individual identities while participating in the creation of social links This book examines the processes of identity construction from below by means of new interpretative tools such as the experience of landscape This work originally published in French brings to an English speaking audience a crucial issue in the modern history of the Basque Country namely the cultural construction of a collective identity within the framework of a nation state such as Spain confronted with multiple territorial identities Approaching this question from the perspective of landscape provides new keys to understanding the processes of nation building that occurred in Europe in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Landscape Martine Berlan-Darqué, Yves Luginbühl, Daniel Terrasson, 2008 Cet ouvrage rassemble les travaux menés principalement en Europe pour comprendre le fonctionnement des politiques de protection et de gestion du paysage dans des

cas concrets et diversifiés Il aborde successivement les enjeux de l'action paysagère les relations entre paysage et espace public dans le contexte urbain les conceptions mobilisées pour laborer et mettre en oeuvre des politiques et enfin les modalités de participation du public Il est destiné aux acteurs impliqués dans la mise en oeuvre des politiques du paysage mais aussi aux étudiants aux enseignants et aux chercheurs intéressés par le transfert des résultats de la recherche au bénéfice de l'action paysagère

Paysages en perspective Gérald Domon, Philippe Poullaouec-Gonidec, Sylvain Paquette, Université de Montréal. Chaire en paysage et environnement, 2005 Il peut paraître étonnant de consacrer tout un livre l'étude des inégalités sociales en matière de santé dans le cadre des pays occidentaux très majoritairement dotés de systèmes universels de soins de qualité Pourtant force est de constater que les disparités sociales persistent encore dans nos sociétés où l'égalité de traitement n'est toujours pas synonyme d'égalité sur le plan de la santé et devant la mort Cet ouvrage dresse un portrait détaillé et offre une analyse rigoureuse des inégalités sociales dans le domaine de la santé mettant en lumière les recherches importantes faites en sciences sociales en psychologie et en sciences de la santé Tout en proposant des pistes d'intervention Ginette Paquet montre le rôle déterminant de la petite enfance dans le développement du sentiment d'emprise sur la vie et l'importance des facteurs de protection pour ceux qui vivent au bas de l'échelle sociale Renaud Bray Methods and Approaches in Forest History Mauro Agnoletti, Steven Anderson, 2000 A companion to Forest History International Studies on Socioeconomic and Forest Ecosystem Change which includes over 20 papers from the same conference This book focuses on the different approaches and methods adopted in the study of forest history The interdisciplinary nature of these studies is emphasized bringing in the different perspectives of anthropologists botanists ecologists foresters historians geneticists and geographers This volume demonstrates the rich diversity of approaches and methods to forest history and the need to integrate them to give a more meaningful understanding of human nature interactions making forest history a more effective tool for the management of forest ecosystems

Forms of Experienced Environments Nathalie Blanc, Théa Manola, Patrick Degeorges, 2020-02-26 This book explores environmental forms in terms of their relationships to the socio-political ecological transformations currently in progress Today the environment is a central theme in political discourse scientific work and everyday life It is multi-dimensional it is a living space a socio-ecological system and a field of research and action However despite the presence and diversity of existing approaches the ways in which policies address environmental issues remain mainly focused on control highlighting the techno-ecological managerial and curative dimensions of public actions Although public action tends to instrumentalise the environment the humanities and social sciences have initiated significant reflections in this field proposing alternative ways of thinking about the environment in its multiple aspects and scales As part of another approach to the environment that mirrors contemporary developments this book adopts a form-based approach which has been largely neglected by previous studies dealing with environmental themes The analyses provided here will open up a new perspective on the relationships between people aesthetics and environments and are drawn from different schools of research

highlighting the huge potential of reading the environment through forms or conversely a reading of environmental forms

Paysages d'énigmes Igor Babou, Lionel Charles, Philippe Hilaire, Bernard Kalaora, Joëlle Le Marec, Carpanin

Marimoutou, Yogan Muller, Jacky Vieux, 2017-04-01 Nul ne peut prétendre finir le paysage comme un objet qui serait soit entièrement culturel soit entièrement naturel il supporte maints cadres théoriques philosophique esthétique historique anthropologique sociologique etc tout en ayant constitué un réservoir d'agir politique et d'expression artistique le caractère flou du concept autorise tous les confort interprétatifs mais aussi tous les abus gestionnaires C'est pourquoi il constitue un terrain particulièrement intéressant pour confronter des points de vue des pratiques et des méthodologies L'idée est donc de contourner les approches parfois exclusivement scientifiques ce que nous dit le paysage ce que signifie le paysage etc ou parfois uniquement sociologiques le paysage comme construit social pour interroger ce qui dans le paysage dérange nos prétentions la modulation ou au surplomb par exemple comment maintenir dans nos objets et actions la sensibilité les troubles ou les énigmes liés aux difficultés de penser la fois la nature et les institutions les représentations et les actions les engagements et les déplacements des individus les approches scientifiques et les intérêts des praticiens

Sensory

Environmental Relationships: Between Memories of the Past and Imaginings of the Future Blaž Bajič, Ana Svetel, 2023-09-26

Sensory environmental relationships understood as dynamic embodied and emplaced affective sensory perceptions in and of the environment invite us to remember the past infuse our experiences of the present and entice us to imagine the future Ethnographically specific socially and culturally nuanced approaches to environmental relationships require considerable conceptual and practical flexibility and inventiveness Reflecting this commitment Sensory Environmental Relationships aims to offer a new anthropological understanding of how in our individual and collective lives senses places and temporalities intersect While anthropologists have been studying the sensory environmental relationships in connection to people's pasts and presents futures remain conspicuously absent By bringing different timeframes into the foreground of the analysis this volume contributes to filling in the gap in our understanding of the human experience The volume's ethnographically based contributions address the questions of how embodied and emplaced practices of sensing while moving or staying in place in diverse environments engender inform and affect the processes of remembering and forgetting the past experiencing the present and imagining the future Drawing on the fields of environmental anthropology sensory studies studies of movement and mobility memory studies and other related sub-disciplines as well as diverse epistemologically and methodologically experimental approaches the volume explores the ways in which sensory environmental relationships touch upon our pasts presents and futures

Contesting the Foreshore

Jeremy Boissevain, Tom Selwyn, 2004 This collection of essays examines social political and economic relations in primarily European coastal locations through the lens of tourism The contributors explore the intersecting interests of fishing tourism and development and the conflict among local communities and market forces all of which are infused with the symbolism of the sea as a place of mystery and danger From the tensions between

Cornish villagers and city visitors to the explosion of resort development in Gran Canaria the authors consider the relationship between local residents businesses and tourist newcomers as they vie for status influence and ultimately for space

Research Handbook on Intellectual Property and Geographical Indications Dev S. Gangjee, 2016-02-26 In an increasingly globalised world place and provenance matter like never before The law relating to Geographical Indications GIs regulates designations which signal this provenance While Champagne Prosciutto di Parma Caf de Colombia and Darjeeling are familiar designations the relevant legal regimes have existed at the margins for over a century In recent years a critical mass of scholarship has emerged and this book celebrates its coming of age Its objective is to facilitate an interdisciplinary conversation by providing sure footed guidance across contested terrain as well as enabling future avenues of enquiry to emerge The distinctive feature of this volume is that it reflects a multi disciplinary conversation between legal scholars policy makers legal practitioners historians geographers sociologists economists and anthropologists Experienced contributors from across these domains have thematically explored 1 the history and conceptual underpinnings of the GI as a legal category 2 the effectiveness of international protection regimes 3 the practical operation of domestic protection systems and 4 long unresolved as well as emerging critical issues Specific topics include a detailed interrogation of the history and functions of terroir the present state as well as future potential of international GI protection including the Lisbon Agreement 2015 conflicts between trade marks and GIs the potential for GIs to contribute to rural or territorial development as well as sustain traditional or Indigenous knowledge and the vexed question of generic use This book is therefore intended for all those with an interest in GIs across a range of disciplinary backgrounds Students scholars policy makers and practitioners will find this Handbook to be an invaluable resource

The European Landscape Convention Michael Jones, Marie Stenseke, 2011-02-09 This important and insightful book provides for the first time a broad presentation of ongoing research into public participation in landscape conservation management and planning following the 2000 European Landscape Convention which came into force in 2004 The book examines both the theory of participation and what lessons can be learnt from specific European examples It explores in what manner and to what extent the provisions for participation in the European Landscape Convention have been followed up and implemented It also presents and compares different experiences of participation in selected countries from northern southern eastern and western Europe and provides a critical examination of public participation in practice However while the book s focus is necessarily on Europe many of the conclusions drawn are of global relevance The book provides a valuable reference for researchers and advanced students in landscape policies and management as well as for professionals and others interested in land use planning and environmental management

Politiques publiques et paysages Martine Berlan-Darqué, Daniel Terrasson, 2001 Cet ouvrage constitue les Actes du séminaire Politiques publiques et paysages qui s'est tenu Albi les 28-30 mars 2000 Organisé en collaboration avec le Cemagref coordinateur du programme et avec le soutien du conseil général du Tarn et du parc naturel

gional du Haut Languedoc ce s minaire avait pour objectif de favoriser une connaissance mutuelle des travaux qui composent le programme et d organiser les changes entre les porteurs de projet et les diff rentes instances Le lecteur qu il soit scientifique ou gestionnaire trouvera ici un ensemble de r flexions sur des questions fondamentales et plus largement sur l valuation du paysage

Natural Interests Caroline Ford,2016-03-28 Challenging the conventional trope that French environmentalism arose after WWII Caroline Ford argues that a broad environmental consciousness emerged in France much earlier In response to war natural disasters and imperialism the bourgeoisie along with politicians engineers naturalists writers and painters took up environmental causes

Contesting the Foreshore Jeremy Boissevain,Tom Selwyn,2025-10-01 This collection of essays is about tourism and social political and economic relations in coastal locations in various parts of the world The starting point of each chapter is the ethnographic study of one particular place However the authors are also concerned with wider regional national and global forces which shape and influence the local economies and societies under review Although most of the essays focus on the European coastline the book is intended to have implications for other geographical areas In most parts of the world coastal settlements and contexts are changing rapidly and markedly These contexts are routinely characterised by conflict between different interest groups contesting the ownership and control of the foreshore and its resources One of the threads running through the volume is that coastal regions are often sites of fishing and related traditional activities The chapters discuss the relationships between traditional stakeholders such as fishermen and local residents and new stakeholders including new residents second home owners tourists and tourism property developers and fish farm managers as they vie for status influence and ultimately for space on the foreshore The underlying preoccupation of the volume as a whole is the extent of penetration and transformation resulting from the onward march of capitalism and the market system in the coastal locations studied This is the second publication in the MARE Publication Series A collection of essays studying the rapid changes in coastal settlements due to the conflicting interests of traditional and new stakeholders

Heritage Traces in the Making Jean Davallon,2024-07-23 The world is full of traces of the past ranging from things as different as monuments and factories to farms eco museums landscapes mountaineering and even woven grass bridges These traces must be protected and passed on to future generations Communicational analysis shows that these traces have acquired the status of heritage by becoming communicative beings imbued with a new social life Up until the 1970s and 1980s granting this status was the prerogative of the state New modes then emerged increasingly involving social actors and the publicization of knowledge Today the heritage recognition of these traces also depends on interpretative schemes that circulate in society notably through the media Heritage Traces in the Making is aimed at anyone researchers professionals and students who is interested in how heritage is created and how it evolves

Folklore, People, and Places Jack Hunter,Rachael Ironside,2023-03-16 Folklore People and Place is a contribution towards better understanding the complex interconnectivity of folklore people and place across a range of different cultural and geographical contexts The book showcases a range of international case studies from different cultural and ecological contexts showing how folklore can and does mediate human relationships with people and place Folklore has traditionally been connected to place telling tales of the land and the real and imaginary beings that inhabit storied places These storytelling traditions and practices have endured in a contemporary world yet the role and value of folklore to people and places has changed The book explores a broad range of international perspectives and considers how the relationship between folklore people and place has evolved for tourists and indigenous communities It will showcase a range of international case studies from different cultural and ecological contexts showing how folklore can and does mediate human relationships with people and place By exploring folklore in the context of tourism this book engages in a critical discussion of the opportunities and challenges of using storied places in destination development The case studies in the book provide an international perspective on the contemporary value of folklore to people and places engendering reflection on the role of folklore in sustainable tourism strategies This book will be of interest to students academics researchers in fields such as anthropology folklore tourism religious studies human geography and related disciplines It will also be of interest to scholars and practitioners of traditional ecological knowledge Penser global Michel Wieviorka, Laurent Lévi-Strauss, Gwenaëlle Lieppe,
