Violence Lila Abu-Lughod,Rema Hammami,Nadera Shalhoub-Kevorkian,2023-06-30 The Cunning of Gender Violence focuses on how a once visionary feminist project has folded itself into contemporary world affairs Combating violence against women and gender based violence constitutes a highly visible and powerful agenda enshrined in international governance and law and embedded in state violence and global securitization Case studies on Palestine Bangladesh Iran India Pakistan Israel and Turkey as well as on UN and US policies trace the silences and omissions along with the experiences of those subjected to violence to question the rhetoric that claims the agenda as a feminist success story Because religion and racialized ethnicity particularly the Muslim question run so deeply through the institutional structures of the agenda the contributions explore ways it may be affirming or enabling rationales and systems of power including civilizational hierarchies that harm the very people it seeks to protect Contributors Lila Abu Lughod Nina Berman Inderpal Grewal Rema Hammami Janet R Jakobsen Shenila Khoja Moolji Vasuki Nesiah Samira Shackel Sima Shakhsari Nadera Shalhoub Kevorkian Dina M Siddiqi Shahla Talebi Leti Volpp Rafia Zakaria Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1972-03-21 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,2005-06-30 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya

Prosecutorial Discretion in the International Criminal Court Farid Mohammed Rashid,2021-12-15 This book provides the first scholarly investigation of prosecutorial discretion in the International Criminal Court ICC from an interdisciplinary perspective This work analyses the discretionary power of the ICC prosecutor and its scope It explains that there is a tendency to overlook the necessity of distinguishing between the various usages of discretion when exercised as a power authorised by the law and effect when applying indeterminate legal thresholds The author argues that the latter indeterminacy may give decision makers an unwarranted opportunity to exercise a wide range of discretion where extra legal factors may be considered In comparison prosecutorial discretion allows decision makers to consider extra legal considerations This book also discusses the relevance of political considerations within the decision making process in the context of the exercise of prosecutorial discretion It suggests that there need not be a conflict between the broad sense of justice as outlined in the Statute and political factors in giving effect to decisions This book will be of interest to students of international law global governance and international relations The Constitution and Government of Kenya H. B. Ndoria Gicheru,Kabuya Miano,1987 the effectiveness of the rule of law domestically It focuses on the extent to which similar institutions already exist at international level and analyses the possibility of their further development The authors speculate on how the international rule of law might be advanced in the future thereby suggesting potential strategies for strengthening the international rule of law Adopting an interdisciplinary approach and combining the fields of international relations politics and law this book covers a range institutions including UN Security Council International Court of Justice Human rights machinery Regional human rights International Criminal Court World Trade Organization International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea UN Department of Peacekeeping Operations It will be of strong interest to students and scholars of international relations international organisations global governance international law migration law international peace and security law applied ethics political economy political science and sociology

The International Criminal Court and Africa Charles Chernor Jalloh, Ilias Bantekas, 2017-10-06 Africa has been at the forefront of contemporary global efforts towards ensuring greater accountability for international crimes But the continent's early embrace of international criminal justice seems to be taking a new turn with the recent resistance from some African states claiming that the emerging system of international criminal law represents a new form of imperialism masquerading as international rule of law This book analyses the relationship and tensions between the International Criminal Court ICC and Africa It traces the origins of the confrontation between African governments both acting individually and within the framework of the African Union and the permanent Hague based ICC Leading commentators offer valuable insights on the core legal and political issues that have confused the relationship between the two sides and expose the uneasy interaction between international law and international politics They offer suggestions on how best to continue the fight against impunity using national ICC and regional justice mechanisms while taking into principled account the views and interests of African States
