

College Admission Essay

Think About Your Purpose - Not “selling yourself ” or “getting in,” but simply being yourself—which usually means writing about yourself in human, rather than superhuman, terms. For example, if your transcript reveals that you are a stellar student of French, you might write about the time a Parisian pointedly responded in English to your request in French for directions to the Louvre.

Focus - Instead of generalizing your experience, for example saying something like, “I enjoy sports”, be as specific as you can be. Write about the thrill of catching a fly ball deep to centerfield just before it became a home run, or of a Little League career spent waiting for someone, anyone, to hit the ball to your position so that you could stop studying the grass and watching the butterflies.

Use Precise And Descriptive Language - Imagine that each word you write costs you a dollar, and that you don’t have unlimited funds. Instead of writing “On a yearly basis, we would spend five hours driving to the lake, where I never gave up the hope of meeting the boy that would be my Prince Charming,” write “Every August, we trekked to Lake Apponaug, where I always hoped to meet my Prince Charming.”

Give Your Essay Momentum - Make the parts work together and move toward a thoughtful conclusion. In an essay about the summer you spent working in a marine research laboratory, a paragraph on the unreliable bus that took you there each day should be eliminated.

Use Correct Grammar, Spelling, and Punctuation - Don’t distract your reader from what you’re stating by stating it incorrectly. Misspellings, typos, and grammatical errors—such as subjects that don’t agree with verbs—make the reader’s task more difficult and suggest that you don’t care much about the impression you make. Although nobody’s perfect, strive for perfection on your application. Unfortunately, your reader may interpret your mistakes, no matter how innocent, to be signs of laziness, indifference, or even dishonesty.

Vault's new guide does. Vault publishes the entire surveys of current students and alumni at more than 300 top undergraduate institutions. Each 2 to 3 page entry is composed almost entirely of insider comments from students and alumni. Through these narratives, Vault provides applicants with detailed, balanced perspectives.

How to Prepare a Standout College Application Alison Cooper Chisolm, Anna Ivey, 2013-08-06. Demystifying the process of completing a college application. Written by two former admissions officers at top universities and current admissions coaches, this book is a must have for preparing a winning college application. The authors reveal the mystery behind what college admissions officers are looking for and show applicants how to leverage their credentials stand out in the over crowded applicants pool and make a genuine memorable impression. This is the book that will help the college bound get off the like many others pile and onto the acceptance list. Includes instructions and examples for every component of the college application from writing the essay to answering questions like "Why do you want to go to College X." Shows how to avoid underestimating the importance of critical features on any application. Includes the latest information on the Common Application 4.0 and corrects outdated holdover advice still stressed in many other books. This book is filled with step by step advice that students and parents can use immediately and will refer to again and again.

College Admission Robin Mamlet, Christine VanDeVelde, 2011-08-30. College Admission is the ultimate user's manual and go to guide for any student or family approaching the college application process. Featuring the wise counsel of more than 50 deans of admission, no other guide has such thorough, expert, compassionate and professional advice. Let's be honest, applying to college can be stressful for students and parents. But here's the good news: you can get in. Robin Mamlet has been dean of admission at three of America's most selective colleges and a journalist and parent. Christine VanDeVelde has been through the process first hand. With this book, you will feel like you have both a dean of admission and a parent who has been there at your side. Inside this book, you'll find clear, comprehensive and expert answers to all your questions along the way to an acceptance letter. The role of extracurricular activities. What it means to find a college that's the right fit. What's more important: high grades or tough courses? What role does testing play? The best candidates for early admission. When help from parents is too much help. Advice for athletes, artists, international students and those with learning differences. How wait lists work. Applying for financial aid. This will be your definitive resource during the sophomore, junior and senior years of high school.
