English literary culture for our understanding of this process and throws new light on the dynamics of change and continuity between the puritan revolution and the early Enlightenment Based on extensive research in both printed and manuscript sources the book combines detailed case studies of major literary figures with a sustained historical narrative linking the republican moment of the 1650s the conflicts and crises of the Restoration and the ecclesiastical politics of the early eighteenth century Milton and Dryden provide the principal focus of the first three chapters which explore the divisive issue of church settlement in the work of both writers together with the increasingly prominent rhetoric of anti clericalism and irreligion in the poetry and polemics of the later seventeenth century Subsequent chapters extend the book s argument to the embattled condition of the Church of England in the decades after 1688 and the significant contribution of contemporary literary culture to a range of religious and philosophical argument from heterodox free thinking to Newtonian natural theology Secular Chains demonstrates the close and continued relationship between poetry and religious politics in the age of Milton and Pope and provides a new framework for understanding this complex and turbulent period in English literary history Saturday Review ,1858 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1858

Literary Authority and the Modern Chinese Writer Wendy Larson,1991 Throughout the twentieth century Chinese writers have confronted the problem of creating a new literary tradition that both maintains the culturally unique aspects of a rich heritage and succeeds in promoting a new modernity In the first book length treatment of the topic Wendy Larson examines the contradictory forms of authority at work in the autobiographical texts of modern Chinese writers and scholars and the way these conflicts helped to shape and determine the manner in which writers viewed themselves their texts and their work Larson focuses on the most famous writers associated with the May Fourth Movement a group most active in the 1920s and 1930s and their fundamental ambivalence about writing She analyzes how their writing paradoxically characterized textual labor as passive negative and inferior to material labor and the more physical political work of social progress and she describes the ways they used textual means to devalue literary labor The impact of China s increasing contact with the West particularly the ways in which Western notions of individualism and democracy influenced Chinese ideologies of self and work is considered Larson also studies the changes in China s social structure notably those linked to the abolition in 1905 of the educational exam system which subsequently broke the link between the mastery of certain texts and the attainment of political power further denigrating the cultural role of the writer Japan Weekly Mail ,1899 Decapolis, etc. Fifth thousand David Everard Ford,1841 The Round Table ,1868
