Payment Of A Constable In Saps:

Police in Africa Jan Beek, Mirco Göpfert, Olly Owen, Johnny Steinberg, 2017-08-15 Often overlooked by journalists and scholars the police forces of the African continents are a significant and little studied phenomenon This book seeks to redress that lacuna The studies span the continent from South Africa to Sierra Leone keeping a strong ethnographic focus on police officers and their work

Criminal Procedure James R. Acker, David C. Brody, 2004 This essential resource provides students with an introduction to the rules and principles of criminal procedure law This text uses a case study approach to help students develop the analytical skills necessary to understand the origins context and evolutions of the law concentrates on US Supreme Court decisions interpreting both state and federal constitutions and introduces students to the reference materials and strategies used for basic legal research

Police Work and Identity Andrew Faull, 2017-09-07 This is a book about the men and women who police contemporary South Africa Drawing on rich original ethnographical data it considers how officers make sense of their jobs and how they find meaning in their duties It demonstrates that the dynamics that lead to police abuses and scandals in transitional and neo liberalising regimes such as South Africa can be traced to the day to day experiences and ambitions of the average police officer It is about the stories they tell themselves about themselves and their social worlds and how these shape the order they produce through their work By focusing on police officers this book positions the individual in primacy over the organisation asking what policing looks like when motivated by the pursuit of ontological security in precarious contexts It acknowledges but downplays the importance of police culture in determining officers attitudes and behaviour and reminds readers that most officers lives are entangled in and shaped by a range of social political and cultural forces It suggests that a job in the South African Police Service SAPS is primarily just that a job Most officers join the organisation after other dreams have slipped beyond reach their presence in the Service being almost accidental But once employed they re write their self narratives and enact carefully choreographed performances to ease managerial and public pressure and to rationalize their coercive practices In an era where evidence and what works reigns supreme and where cop culture is often deemed a primary socializing force this book emphasises how officers personal histories ambitions and vulnerabilities remain central to how policing unfolds on the street

Recovering Police Legitimacy Rafe McGregor, 2024-07-11 Transatlantic policing is experiencing an unprecedented crisis of legitimacy epitomised by public responses to the murders of George Floyd and Sarah Everard during the COVID 19 pandemic Legitimacy is lost when the police either fail to protect the public or rely on coercion rather than consent to achieve that protection Recovering Police Legitimacy challenges conventional criminological political and public solutions to the problem by approaching it from the bottom up beginning with policing as a practice constituted by a unique set of excellences skills and characteristics The author draws on his experience as a police officer and on the serial fictions of James Ellroy David Peace and Nic Pizzolatto to characterise the practice in terms of heroic struggle edgework absolute sacrifice and worldmaking These characteristics provide an analytic tool for revolutionising our understanding of the relations among policing as a situated practice public protection and police legitimacy and for identifying the different levels at which legitimacy is undermined His conclusion is that recovery is possible but will be slow in pace and incomplete in scope Written accessibly for students police officers policymakers scholars and anyone with an interest in police legitimacy this is a groundbreaking study of a pressing social problem Servamus ,2006 Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich,Adri Sauerman,2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country s apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country s people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations Spatial Practices ,2018-06-26 The edited collection Spatial Practices Territory Border and Infrastructure in Africa presents research findings from the German Research Council s Priority Programme 1448 Adaptation and Change in Africa 2011 2018 At the heart of the volume are important new spatial practices that have emerged after the end of the Cold War in the fields of conflict climate change migration and urban development to name but a few and their ordering effects with regard to social relations These findings bear particular relevance for the co production of territorialities and sovereignties for borders and migrations as well as infrastructures and orders Contributors are Sabine Baumgart Andrea Behrends Marc Boeckler Martin Doeverspeck Ulf Engel Claudia Gebauer Karsten Giese Katharina Heitz Tokpa Shahadat Hossain Anna H ncke Gabriel Klaeger Kelly Si Miao Liang Andreas Mehler Felix M ller Detlef M ller Mahn Wolfgang Scholz Sophie Schramm Jannik Schritt Michael Stasik Florian Weisser Julia Willers and Franzisca Zanker Suid-Afrikaanse Holverslae. Bealissings Van: Die Hooggeregshof Van Suid-Afrika, Die Suidwes-Afrika Afdeling, Die Hoërhof Van Rhodesië ,2011 Plural Policing Trevor Jones,Tim Newburn,2006-04-18 Policing is changing rapidly and radically An increasingly complex array of public private and municipal bodies as well as public police forces are engaged in the provision of regulation and security. Consequently it is difficult to think of security provision primarily in terms of what the public police do and so the terminology of fragmented or plural policing systems has become well established within criminology and police science. Plural policing is now a central issue within criminology and police studies throughout the world and there is now a large and growing body of research and theory concerned with its extent, nature and governance. To date, however, this work has been dominated by Anglo-American perspectives. This volume takes a detailed comparative look at the development of plural policing and provides the most up-to-date work of reference for scholars in this field. Edited by two of the world's leading authorities on policing and including individual contributions from internationally recognised experts in criminology and police studies, this is the first ever volume to focus on plural policing internationally and to draw together empirical evidence on its developments in a formal comparative framework.

The Law of South Africa, 2003      Country Reports on Human Rights Practices, 2002

Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994- ). National Assembly, 2002      Effective Crime Reduction Strategies James F. Albrecht, Dilip K. Das, 2011-02-22 The International Police Executive Symposium IPES www.ipes.info coordinates annual international conferences to evaluate critical issues in policing and recommend practical solutions to law enforcement executives deployed across the globe. Drawn from the 2005 proceedings hosted by the Czech Republic in Prague.

Effective Crime Reduction Strategie      World Police Encyclopedia: L-Z, index Dilip K. Das, Michael Palmiotto, 2006 The World Police Encyclopedia is the only existing reference work to systematically survey all the police systems in all the countries of the world, the 189 UN member states plus Switzerland. Each article describes police history, police education and training, structure of the force, in relation to the country's form of government and criminal justice system, police responsibilities and duties, most common crimes, structure and role of the courts, correction structure, organization and function of the police force, use of firearms, local and central interactions, community relations and current issues and challenges. This unique resource will be of interest to scholars of history, foreign policy and politics as well as government agencies, NGOs and others involved in working internationally to control international and domestic crime.

Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee, 1920      The Profiler Diaries 2 Gérard Labuschagne, 2022-07-13 More riveting cases from the files of former police psychologist and bestselling author Gérard Labuschagne. In this second instalment of The Profiler Diaries, former South African Police Service (SAPS) head profiler Dr Gérard Labuschagne, successor to the legendary Micki Pistorius, recalls more of the 110 murder series and countless other bizarre crimes he analysed during his career. An expert on serial murder and rape cases, Labuschagne saw it all in his fourteen and a half years in the SAPS. Often stymied by a lack of resources, office politics and legal incompetence, Labuschagne and his team were nevertheless determined to obtain justice for the victims whose cases they were tasked with investigating. Tracking down a prolific serial stalker linking the murders of two young women in Knysna, assessing a suspect threatening to assassinate President Obama.

and apprehending a serial murderer of sex workers are just a few of the intriguing and often terrifying cases he covers in his second book The Profiler Diaries From Crime Scene to Courtroom As Labuschagne says catching a killer is one thing getting them convicted in a court of law is an entirely different ball game This book shows how it is done in fascinating detail

Special Topics in Policing James F. Albrecht, Garth den Heyer, 2024-04-22 This book comprehensively examines five key areas of concern across the field of policing These critical issues include police use of force police ethics and integrity traffic safety police community collaboration and optimizing organizational performance and service delivery The chapters that follow provide a global multi faceted approach to analyze these core professional issues examine them through sociological and theoretical lenses and ultimately propose policy recommendations to ensure optimal professionalism and organizational effectiveness The book focuses on issues including Enhancing public trust and confidence Effective crime control Rule of law Social justice Best procedures and practices This book is ideal for upper level undergraduate and graduate level students criminal justice and law enforcement practitioners and policy makers and criminal justice and criminology researchers

Behind the Badge Andrew Faull, 2010-11-05 Every South African has a strong opinion on crime and policing but most know very little about the lives and experiences of the average cop in the 185 000 strong South African Police Service This book is composed of excerpts from interviews with current and former members of the service who for the first time share their personal experiences of life behind the badge The book covers a wide range of themes including reasons for signing up training policing under apartheid and transformation after 1994 It describes the experience of solving cases using lethal force being shot at and losing colleagues Policemen and women speak frankly about the psychological toll of police work and the impact on their family lives and give startling insights into ethics torture corruption sex and power There is a mantra among police What happens on the shift stays on the shift In Behind the Badge members break through this wall of silence and reveal the hidden life of the police

Culture, Organization, and Management in South Africa Marja Spierenburg, Harry Wels, 2006 South Africa is celebrating its first decade of democratic freedom It therefore seems appropriate to examine in more detail how South Africa has tried to restore some of the many social injustices caused by the former apartheid regime This book offers a view into the world of organisation and management from a cultural perspective The authors investigate how initiatives and policies with the aim of generating more employment equity have been developed implemented and have worked out in various sectors of the South African economy The various chapters present in depth case studies that deal with the South African government local NGOs universities and tourism The book reveals in detail the local struggles of the historically disadvantaged and the powers that be to try and live up to the ideals of the New South Africa

The Profiler Diaries Gérard Labuschagne, 2021-03-10 In this gripping and sometimes terrifying account former South African Police Service SAPS head profiler Dr G rard Labuschagne successor to the legendary Micki Pistorius recalls some of the 110 murder series and countless other bizarre crimes he analysed during his career An expert on serial murder and rape cases Labuschagne saw it all in his fourteen and a half years in the SAPS. He walks the reader through the first crime scene he ever attended, his arrest of the Muldersdrift serial rapist, his experience as the head of the task team mandated to catch the Quarry serial murderer, his involvement with the Brighton Beach axe murders and more. Despite often being stymied by a lack of resources, office politics and political interference, Labuschagne and his team were always determined to get their man or woman, as in the Womb Raider case. The Profiler Diaries is a fascinating and often hair-raising glimpse into what it was like to be a profiler in the world's busiest profiling unit.
