Science Reports Tōhoku Daigaku, 1942 NASA Technical Memorandum ,1984 The International History of Communication Study Peter Simonson, David W. Park, 2015-10-14 The International History of Communication Study maps the growth of media and communication studies around the world Drawing out transnational flows of ideas institutions publications and people it offers the most comprehensive picture to date of the global history of communication research and education This volume reaches into national and regional areas that have not received much attention in the scholarship until now including Asia Latin America Africa and the Middle East alongside Europe and North America It also covers communication study outside of academic settings in international organizations like UNESCO and among commercial and civic groups It moves beyond the traditional canon to cover work by forgotten figures including women scholars in the field and those outside of the United States and Europe and it situates them all within the broader geopolitical institutional and intellectual landscapes that have shaped communication study globally Intended for scholars and graduate students in communication media studies and journalism this volume pushes the history of communication study in new directions by taking an aggressively international and comparative perspective on the historiography of the field Methodologically and conceptually the volume breaks new ground in bringing comparative transnational and global frames to bear and puts under the spotlight what has heretofore only lingered in the penumbra of the history of communication study Memorandum for College and University Student Advisors ,1998 Benjamin Disraeli Letters: 1852-1856 Benjamin Disraeli, John Alexander Wilson Gunn, Melvin George Wiebe, 1982-01-01 The latest volume in the critically acclaimed Letters of Benjamin Disraeli series contains or describes 952 letters 778 previously unpublished written by Disraeli between 1852 and 1856
