Trap Wall Street Journal reporter Josh Mitchell tells the vivid and compelling Chicago Tribune untold story of the scandals, scams, predatory actors, and government malpractice that have created the behemoth that one of its original architects called a monster. As he charts the jaw-dropping Jeffrey Selinger, New York Times bestselling author of Who Gets In and Why, seventy-year history of student debt in America, Mitchell never loses sight of the countless student victims ensnared by an exploitative system that depends on their debt. Mitchell also draws alarming parallels to the housing crisis in the late 2000s, showing the catastrophic consequences student debt has had on families and the nation's future. Mitchell's character-driven narrative is necessary reading. The New York Times for anyone wanting to understand the central economic issue of our day.
