Tourism and Opportunities for Economic Development in Asia Ordóñez de Pablos, Patricia, Aung, Zeyar Myo, 2017-01-25
The growing market of tourism in Asian countries has caused significant changes to the economy transportation and safety for citizens With the ubiquity of tourism there is now an increasing need for resources to assist in the challenges that arise Tourism and Opportunities for Economic Development in Asia is a key resource on the priorities challenges and strategies in the globalized economy of the Asian tourism market Highlighting multidisciplinary studies on cultural tourism gastronomy and hospitality management this publication is an ideal reference source for academicians researchers politicians policy makers and information technology directors actively involved in the tourism industry Halcyon Days Austin E. Moorhouse, 2004 This book is a sailing travel adventure demonstrating how dreams can come true for those who have the desire to accomplish persistence a sense of adventure and are willing to take risks in order to make their dreams come true It is about the pleasures responsibilities trials and tribulations that go along with any major change in lifestyles Space Cooperation Into the 21st Century Peter M. Bainum, 1997 Vols 1 3 are reissues of the proceedings of the 3d 4th annual meetings and 1st western regional meeting of the American Astronautical Society Qualitative Research in Tourism Jenny Phillimore, Lisa Goodson, 2004 Whilst qualitative approaches are beginning to be more commonly used and accepted in tourism discussions of research methods have rarely moved beyond practical considerations Limited attention given to the underlying philosophical and theoretical underpinnings that influence the research process This book links the theory with research practice to offer a more holistic account of how qualitative research can be used in tourism Analysis of Engineering Design Studies for Demilitarization of Assembled Chemical Weapons at Pueblo Chemical Depot National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Board on Army Science and Technology, Committee on Review and Evaluation of Alternative Technologies for Demilitarization of Assembled Chemical Weapons: Phase II, 2001-09-27 The Program Manager for Assembled Chemical Weapons Assessment PMACWA of the Department of Defense DOD requested the National Research Council NRC to assess the engineering design studies EDSs developed by Parsons Honeywell and General Atomics for a chemical demilitarization facility to completely dispose of the assembled chemical weapons at the Pueblo Chemical Depot in Pueblo Colorado To accomplish the task the NRC formed the Committee on Review and Evaluation of Alternative Technologies for Demilitarization of Assembled Chemical Weapons Phase II ACW II Committee This report presents the results of the committee's scientific and technical assessment which will assist the Office of the Secretary of Defense in selecting the technology package for destroying the chemical munitions at Pueblo The committee evaluated the engineering design packages proposed by the technology providers and the associated experimental studies that were performed to validate unproven unit operations A significant part of the testing program involved expanding the technology base for the hydrolysis of energetic materials associated with assembled weapons This process was a concern expressed by the Committee on Review and Evaluation of Alternative Technologies for Demilitarization of Assembled Chemical Weapons ACW I Committee in its original report in 1999 NRC 1999 The present study took place as the experimental studies were in progress In some cases tests for some of the supporting unit operations were not completed in time for the committee to incorporate results into its evaluation In those cases the committee identified and discussed potential problem areas in these operations Based on its expertise and its aggressive data gathering activities the committee was able to conduct a comprehensive review of the test data that had been completed for the overall system design This report summarizes the study

Hidden Power Kati Marton, 2010-09-22 An engrossing look at twelve presidential marriages from Edith and Woodrow Wilson to Laura and George W Bush that have profoundly affected America's history Insightful Colorful A shrewd and illuminating look at the juncture where the personal and the political overlap The Wall Street Journal Marton uncovers the behind the scenes dynamics of the ultimate power couples showing how first ladies have used their privileged access to the president to influence staffing promote causes and engage directly in policy making Edith Wilson secretly ran the country after Woodrow's debilitating stroke Eleanor Roosevelt was FDR's moral compass And Laura Bush initially shy of any public role has proven to be the emotional ballast for her husband Through extensive research and interviews Marton reveals the substantial yet often overlooked legacy of presidential wives providing insight into the evolution of women's roles in the twentieth century and vividly depicting the synergy of these unique political partnerships

National Rolling Plan, 1999-2001, Kano State Programme, 1998 Evaluation of Demonstration Test Results of Alternative Technologies for Demilitarization of Assembled Chemical Weapons National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Board on Army Science and Technology, Committee on Review and Evaluation of Alternative Technologies for Demilitarization of Assembled Chemical Weapons: Phase II, 2002-01-08 By direction of Congress the U S Department of Defense's DoD's program manager for the Assembled Chemical Weapons Assessment PMACWA asked the National Research Council NRC Committee on Review and Evaluation of Alternative Technologies for Demilitarization of Assembled Chemical Weapons Phase II the ACW II committee to conduct an independent scientific and technical assessment of three alternative technologies referred to as Demo II under consideration for the destruction of assembled chemical weapons at U S chemical weapons storage sites The three technologies are AEA Technologies Corporation's AEA's electrochemical oxidation process the transpiring wall supercritical water oxidation and gasphase chemical reduction processes of Foster Wheeler Eco Logic Kvaerner FW EL K and Teledyne Commodore's solvated electron process Each of these technologies represents an alternative to incineration for the complete destruction of chemical agents and associated energetic materials The demonstration tests were approved by the PMACWA after an initial assessment of each technology The results of that initial assessment were reviewed by an earlier NRC committee the Committee on Review and Evaluation of Alternative Technologies for Demilitarization of Assembled Chemical Weapons the ACW I committee For the present review the committee conducted an indepth examination of each technology provider s data analyses and demonstration test results for the critical components tested This review report supplements the ACW I report and considers the demonstration performance of the Demo II candidate technologies and their readiness for advancement to pilot scale implementation Because testing in these areas is ongoing the committee decided to cut short its fact finding efforts for input to this report as of March 30 2001

Making Commons Dynamic Prateep Kumar Nayak,2021-03-01 With an emphasis on the challenges of sustaining the commons across local to global scales Making Commons Dynamic examines the empirical basis of theorising the concepts of commonisation and decommonisation as a way to understand commons as a process and offers analytical directions for policy and practice that can potentially help maintain commons as commons in the future Focusing on commonisation decommonisation as an analytical framework useful to examine and respond to changes in the commons the chapter contributions explore how natural resources are commonised and decommonised through the influence of multi level internal and external drivers and their implications for commons governance across disparate geographical and temporal contexts It draws from a large number of geographically diverse empirical cases 20 countries in North South and Central America and South and South East Asia They involve a wide range of commons related to fisheries forests grazing wetlands coastal marine rivers and dams aquaculture wildlife tourism groundwater surface freshwater mountains small islands social movements and climate The book is a transdisciplinary endeavour with contributions by scholars from geography history sociology anthropology political studies planning human ecology cultural and applied ecology environmental and development studies environmental science and technology public policy Indigenous tribal studies Latin American and Asian studies and environmental change and governance and authors representing the commons community NGOs and policy Contributors include academics community members NGOs practitioners and policymakers Therefore commonisation decommonisation lessons drawn from these chapters are well suited for contributing to the practice policy and theory of the commons both locally and globally
