Transitional Justice and the Prosecution of Political Leaders in the Arab Region Noha Aboueldahab, 2017-10-05 The dramatic uprisings that ousted the long standing leaders of several countries in the Arab region set in motion an unprecedented period of social political and legal transformation The prosecution of political leaders took centre stage in the pursuit of transitional justice following the Arab Spring Through a comparative case study of Egypt Libya Tunisia and Yemen this book argues that transitional justice in the Arab region presents the strongest challenge yet to the transitional justice paradigm This paradigm is built on the underlying assumption that transitions constitute a shift from non liberal to liberal democratic regimes where often legal measures are taken to address atrocities committed during the prior regime The book is guided by two principal questions first what trigger and driving factors led to the decision of whether or not to prosecute former political leaders And second what shaping factors affected the content and extent of decisions regarding prosecution In answering these questions the book enhances our understanding of how transitional justice is pursued by different actors in varied contexts In doing so it challenges the predominant understanding that transitional justice uniformly occurs in liberalising contexts and calls for a re thinking of transitional justice theory and practice Using original findings generated from almost 50 interviews across 4 countries this research builds on the growing critical literature that claims that transitional justice is an under theorised field and needs to be developed to take into account non liberal and complex transitions It will be stimulating and thought provoking reading for all those interested in transitional justice and the Arab Spring The Pilgrimage to Al-Madinah & Meccah Richard Francis Burton, 2022-05-17 In The Pilgrimage to Al Madinah Meccah Richard Francis Burton presents a richly detailed account of his 1853 pilgrimage to the Islamic holy cities of Medina and Mecca Written in a vivid immersive style the book blends travel narrative with ethnographic observations offering readers an intimate glimpse into the rituals of Hajj and the cultural tapestry of 19th century Arabia Burton s prose reflects a deep respect for the Islamic faith tempered by his own Western perspective making it a critical work for understanding both the complexities of Islamic pilgrimage and the cross cultural encounters of the Victorian era Richard Francis Burton was a prominent British explorer linguist and scholar renowned for his adventurous spirit and deep curiosity about Eastern cultures His extensive travels throughout Africa the Middle East and India combined with his fluency in multiple languages informed his approach to writing this book Burton s ambition to uncover and share the realities of the Muslim world often obscured by Western misconceptions inspired him to undertake the perilous journey that would culminate in this seminal work This book is highly recommended for readers interested in anthropology religious studies or the historical interplay between East and
