Lovecraft, and Ray Bradbury William F. Touponce,2013-10-10 In his classic study Supernatural Horror in Literature H P Lovecraft discusses the emergence of what he called spectral literature literature that involves the gothic themes of the supernatural found in the past but also considers modern society and humanity Beyond indicating how authors of such works derived pleasure from a sense of cosmic atmosphere Lovecraft did not elaborate on what he meant by the term spectral as a form of haunted literature concerned with modernity In Lord Dunsany H P Lovecraft and Ray Bradbury Spectral Journeys William F Touponce examines what these three masters of weird fiction reveal about modernity and the condition of being modern in their tales In this study Touponce confirms that these three authors viewed storytelling as a kind of journey into the spectral Furthermore he explains how each identifies modernity with capitalism in various ways and shows a concern with surpassing the limits of realism which they see as tied to the representation of bourgeois society The collected writings of Lord Dunsany H P Lovecraft and Ray Bradbury span the length of the tumultuous twentieth century with hundreds of stories By comparing these authors Touponce also traces the development of supernatural fiction since the early 1900s Reading about how these works were tied to various stages of capitalism one can see the connection between supernatural literature and society This study will appeal to fans of the three authors discussed here as well as to scholars and others interested in the connection between literature and society criticism of supernatural fiction the nature of storytelling and the meaning and experience of modernity

The Spark and the Grind Erik Wahl,2017-03-07 We ve been conditioned to think about creative genius as a dichotomy dreamers versus doers creativity versus discipline the spark versus the grind But what if we re wrong What if it s the spark and the grind We love people whose creative genius arrives in sudden sparks of inspiration Think of Archimedes in his bathtub or Newton under his apple tree But we also admire people who work incredibly hard and long for their creative breakthroughs Think of Edison in his lab grinding through hundreds of failed variations on the lightbulb We remember his words in tough times Genius is 1 percent inspiration 99 percent perspiration Now Erik Wahl a visual artist speaker and entrepreneur helps us unite the yin and yang of creativity the dynamic new ideas with the dogged effort He shows why we won t get far if we rely on the spark without the grind or the grind without the spark What the world really needs are the creators who can hold the two in balance Fortunately it s possible to get good at both as Wahl knows from experience After his corporate career sud denly ended he pursued a spark to paint photorealistic portraits and ground it out
