Wren,2019-08-01 Deeper learning has been defined as the skills and knowledge that students must possess to succeed in 21st century jobs and civic life William and Flora Hewlett Foundation 2013

Assessing Deeper Learning Developing Implementing and Scoring Performance Tasks examines the role of performance assessment to facilitate student attainment of the core competencies of deeper learning. The book details a journey that a large school district undertook to create a system of performance tasks designed to assess students' proficiency in critical thinking, problem solving, and effective communication. Chapters devoted to the development and implementation of the district's high quality performance tasks and rubrics highlight successes and lessons learned during the journey. Additional chapters focus on such topics as types of performance assessments, instructional methods that promote student engagement, and deeper learning policy, and how teacher leaders can drive this innovation to serve the teaching, learning, assessment, and accountability needs of schools. Assessing Deeper Learning: Developing, Implementing, and Scoring Performance Tasks was written for teachers, administrators, superintendents, and policy makers to better understand the challenges and opportunities afforded by using performance assessment to promote deeper learning. Great Performances Larry Lewin, Betty Jean Shoemaker, 1998. This book presents an approach to developing performance assessments. It begins with four steps for Info In and moves to four Info Out modes through which students can make their content understanding explicit for evaluation purposes. The first chapter is an overview of performance assessment in the classroom. Chapter 2 discusses the Info In model and the key processes of reading, listening, manipulating, and viewing. Chapter 3 explores the first Info Out mode: visual representations. Chapters 4, 5, and 6 examine the three additional Info Out modes: writing, oral presentations, and large scale substantive projects and performances. The final chapter summarizes strengths and weaknesses of classroom based performance assessments. An appendix contains the Oregon Writing Scoring Guide for middle school. Contains 64 figures and 23 references. SLD. Teaching Language and Literacy James F. Christie, Carol Vukelich, Billie Enz, 2007. This text does an exemplary job of presenting current early literacy research and methods in a manner that can be understood and respected. Also, its emphasis upon workshop based instruction is very appealing to me as a long time advocate for this approach to literacy. Scott A. L. Beck, Georgia Southern University. The third edition of Teaching Language and Literacy: Preschool Through the Elementary Grades integrates a constructivist, emergent literacy perspective with science based instructional practices. This unique focus on theories and techniques that have proven to be successful helps pre-service and in-service teachers translate principles into classroom practice. Perfect for any course with a focus on language, the book covers the development and teaching of both oral and written language in preschool through elementary grades. Its emphasis on diversity includes special features that describe how teachers can adjust instruction to meet the needs of second language and bilingual learners. In addition, the third edition focuses on scientifically based reading research (SBRR) throughout, blending these findings with other perspectives in a value added approach to language and literacy teaching and learning. New features include emphasis on a blended approach to language and literacy instruction, including both authentic learning linked to activities and developmentally appropriate teaching. Activities such as Linking Knowledge to Practice help students connect theory to practices they observe in preschool and kindergarten classrooms In depth coverage of new federal and state literacy initiatives standardized literacy assessments and latest practices in ongoing literacy assessment Action Research for Kids Amanda O.
